FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

SYMPTATHY EXTENDED

We express our sincere sympathies to the family of Hazel Powell, who passed away on January 9 at the age of 94. Hazel visited with us many times prior to becoming shut-in over the past several years.

LADIES DEVOTIONAL

There will be a devotional for the ladies on Friday, January 22 at 7 pm at the church building. All ladies are invited to attend & discuss future plans/programs.

THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Sign up for the next Guess Who's Coming to Dinner? Event by Jan 20.
- Youth Devo for January will be Jan 23 @ Baker's home
- Volunteers are needed for 2016 communion preparation.
- Host Families are needed for the youth group devotionals Jan thru April.
- 2016 plans are available. If you would like a copy, see the elders.

JANUARY 2016

3RD SUNDAY GIVING

For 2016, the elders have set aside the 3rd Sunday evening of each month as a special giving opportunity. The extra funds will be used towards our new building.
Next 3rd Sunday: TODAY!

"My God is too big for one religion" By Jason Carter

I have seen those words on a bumper sticker. Many people who call themselves Christians (regardless what the Bible says) would say something similar to that, though they would probably substitute the word "denomination" for "religion." Ecumenism is a dangerous concept—"One church is as good as any other," or, "You believe what you want to believe, and I'll believe what I want to believe." God is quite clear that there is but one faith (Ephesians 4:5), and that we are to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3). People may call me intolerant, but I am more concerned with what God thinks than what man thinks (Galatians 1:10).

But this particular bumper sticker—"My God is too big for one religion"—takes the idea of ecumenism even further. If one truly believes this statement, then not only are all "Christian" denominations included, but so are all religions that outright reject the Christ - Jews, Muslims, Buddhists, Hindu, etc.

A Roman Catholic priest once said on Larry King Live, "Jesus rejoices when His Father is glorified. And when a Muslim or Jew glorifies the Father I can't imagine Jesus coming and saying, 'Oh, well, when are you going to look at Me?' The joy of Jesus is the glorification of God." Yet, Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6).

Melvin Talbert, ecumenical officer of the United Methodist Church, was asked by Larry King if he thought his religion was right. Talbert answered in the affirmative, but denied that all others were necessarily wrong. "I believe my God is large enough to be inclusive of all human beings who were created in God's image and that includes those religions that are not Christians."

God's Word is firm: those who wish to come to the Father must do so by Jesus—not Mohammed, nor Buddha, nor the Pope, nor any other teacher of error. Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

PLANS FOR 2016

1. Evangelism: This is pivotal for the growth of the church in Zimbabwe. In other words, there is no substitute for evangelism. We plan to expand evangelism work to other areas of the country in 2016. Our plea has always been submission or obedience to the authority of Christ or the Bible. We shall teach people to obey the gospel of Christ and become precisely what people were in the first century.
 2. We shall conduct leadership courses and sharpen leadership skills of church leaders.
 3. We shall use WBS Courses in teaching people

God's Word including prison inmates.
 4. We shall encourage ladies and the youth to have meetings anchored upon the word of God.
 5. Jacob and Nqobizitha will continue to help farmers in their drip irrigation gardens.
 6. Weather predictions for Southern African countries are painting a gloomy picture of a worst drought ever. Therefore, we shall continue distributing food to the needy if our overseas brothers and sisters continue to provide the food relief funds.
 In His service
 Velaphi
