

FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you are able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

STATEMENT FROM ELDERS

Over the past few months there have been several instances of trash left around the building. We are asking everyone to please be respectful and responsible with anything you bring into the building. If it is a disposable item, please ensure that it ends up in the proper receptacle and not left lying around. If it is a cup with liquid, please dump the liquid out in a restroom or basement sink prior to disposing of the cup. The reason for this is to ensure that liquid waste does not leak out into the trash cans and become the source of foul odors.

Also, there have been instances of paper and food waste left on classroom tables and floors. Again, please ensure that all trash is disposed of properly and that the rooms are left in an orderly condition. We understand that children often play in the classrooms after services and we do not wish to discourage this. We simply request that parents supervise and ensure that classrooms are not left in disarray afterward.

As we look forward to our new and larger auditorium, we will need everyone's help to keep the building in the cleanest and best condition possible. Thank you for your support in this effort.

Obedience Requires Humility by Jason T Carter

Paul, Silas, and their fellow workers in the Lord encountered a great number of people on their missionary journey. Some of those people received their teachings, while others rejected the message of God. When they arrived in Philippi, the missionaries went to the riverside where a group of spiritually-minded women were praying on the Sabbath.

One of those women was named Lydia. As Paul taught the truth of Jesus Christ, Lydia's heart was opened and she heeded his words. "And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, 'If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.' So she persuaded us" (Acts 16:15).

What a precious response to the Word of God. Luke does not record any arguing over the doctrine. Lydia did not make excuses for her shortcomings, nor did she "agree to disagree" with what Paul taught. She heard, she believed, and she was baptized.

How do you feel when you find out you have been wrong about something? Perhaps your boss showed you a more efficient way to do your job. Do you resist the change just because you have been doing it your way for years? Or do you recognize that there is a better way, and adjust accordingly?

Spiritually speaking, the new covenant of Jesus is "a better covenant" than the old Law of Moses, offering "a better hope" (Hebrews 7:19,22; 8:6). Christianity is better than any other religion, because it is the only path to salvation. Jesus Christ, and only Jesus Christ, is "the way, the truth, and the life." He said, "No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6).

The church must follow the Word of God, and only the Word of God. No denominational creeds, no catechisms, nothing more and nothing less than the inspired Word. It is not arrogance, but rather humility, to recognize that we cannot improve upon His revelation. The Father said of Jesus, "This is My beloved Son. Hear Him!" (Luke 9:35).

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Greetings from Zimbabwe in the mighty name of our Lord Jesus Christ! "Ask the Lord for rain. In time of the latter rain. The Lord will make flashing clouds; He will give them showers of rain, grass in the field for everyone." Zechariah 10:1. God has answered our prayers for rain. Heavy rains are currently pounding all areas of Zimbabwe night and day and all streams and rivers are running with water. Crops in all rural areas are also looking good. Rural farmers have already started harvesting wild vegetables like delele (ocra) and ulude which are used as relish. Pastures for livestock have also turned green. If the rains continue, farmers will start harvesting their crops in April this year after years of drought. We praise the Lord!

 In His service, Velaphi
