Family News and Notes

Welcome! We are glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

Sympathy Extended
We express our sincere sympathy to the Vanderpool and Reitz families at the passing of Pauline's brother-in-law, Selva Isenberg, on Saturday morning. Selva was married to Pauline's sister, Nevona.

VBS Help Requested
There is a sign up sheet in the foyer for teachers and helpers for VBS. Please take a look and see if you can help. If you have any questions, please see Brian.

Unprepared For the Conditions by Neal Pollard

As one who was born in Mississippi and raised in South Georgia, I am very proud of my southern roots. Frankly, I could not hide them even if I was inclined. It is a heritage that includes the Bible Belt, sweet tea, BBQ, lemon icebox pie, peanut butter, gnats, humidity, pecan trees, Georgia mud cats, the Georgia Bulldogs, and the Atlanta Braves (including the bad years). But, one thing we rarely needed to be ready for was treating the roads for snow and ice. Therefore, even a light or moderate amount of snow means impassable roads and gridlock in traffic. The historic snowstorm that has hit the deep south has come with power outages, massive traffic jams, stranded motorists, numerous wrecks, and seven states of emergency. Typically, southern cities do not have chemicals for road treatment, a bevy of snowplows, or organized plans because these events are so rare.

I am not criticizing these locales and governments because of this lack of preparation. Of course, I was not trying to get home from work or school in those conditions. If you were, you likely feel differently.

Yet, there is a general state of unpreparedness for something that is 100% likely to occur at some point in the future. Every single person could potentially make completely ready for it. It has been forecast with the greatest of certainty. It has been described in clear enough detail. The preparation is outlined in clear and simple detail. There are even a number of people who have been employed and enlisted to aid in warning and educating the general public. Those tasked with being prepared and preparing others will be held accountable for whether or not they were involved in enacting that plan. Every single person who is unprepared will nonetheless be accountable and liable for the consequences of their not being ready (Matthew 25:1-13). There is absolutely no reason why anyone should be unprepared for the Judgment Day. May each of us do our part to help prepare as many as possible for it!

Youth Group News

Point the Way

Please note that we have selected and tasked a new WBS Follow up team in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe. We did this so that there is continuity in case something happens to one of them. For example, our brother Edmore Moyo who was very effective in making follow up was taken to be with the Lord in December last year. Since then, many overseas WBS teachers have been having some difficulties in sending names of their students to preachers here to make follow up. So, please inform all our loving brothers and sisters that we now have a team of four to do this noble work namely: brother Christopher Ndlovu who is the leader of this group, Sipho Nkala, Dumisani Mafu and Mthokozisi Sibanda. These are all trained preachers and are very effective in the Lord's vineyard. Please feel free to contact them. Therefore, WBS teachers abroad can now send student names to these addresses: Christopher Ndlovu: minis-tercndlovu@yahoo.com If they so wish, they can send names to me as well: Velaphi Mlangeni: velaphihaileymlangeni@gmail.com When we receive student names and addresses, we will make sure that follow up and feedback is done timely. In His service, Velaphi
