Memory Verse of the Week

"So it is not the will of my Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish."

Matthew 18:14

Well, we just got home a little while ago. We got the car unloaded and Colleen was off to pick up the children and bring them home. I of course have some things to get ready for tomorrows lesson and this article to send to Jennifer Leas (who does an amazing job with our bulletin). So I decided to share some fresh thoughts about this weeks events.

Of course I could say all of the obvious things...I love my wife, I am so blessed to have her walking by my side and supporting me and the work here at Point Pleasant; I love my children and missed them so much; I could be a better (less critical) husband...

But the title is not really accurate to my thoughts right now. (I guess I could change it, but I won't). What really comes to mind is some reaffirmations and a deeper understanding and focus on a few things. Here goes:

No matter how great you think your marriage is (and it may be). It will never be all it could be or should be unless both husband and wife are faithful Christians!

I am so blessed...to be a part of the Point Pleasant congregation. How did I get that from the Retreat? Come next year and find out! As soon as we have information for next year we will be announcing it and encouraging as many as can possibly attend to join us! I am also sure that you all will be hearing stories (and possibly seeing videos) to prove what I am saying.

We are so blessed to have brother Glenn Colley coming in a few weeks to conduct our Parenting Workshop. It is a great opportunity to reach out to those friends and family members who are not part of the New Testament church. But it will also be a great event for all who are, have or are planning to have children or grandchildren.

The most important thing about marriage is that it is a partnership that should be one of mutual support and focus...a home in Heaven when this life is over.

In 1 Corinthians 2:9 Paul wrote by inspiration, "But as it is written: 'Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.'" Heaven is too wonderful a place to miss out on...and hell too horrible for anyone to have to go!

Last week I wrote about making our calling and election sure (2 Peter 1:10). Let me ask you this question, "What do you need to do?" Whatever it is...DO IT! If you need to be baptized...DO IT! If you need to make a public acknowledgement of sin, repent and ask for prayers...DO IT! Do you need to take steps to be a better Christians, parent, spouse? DO IT!

I'll leave you with this one bit of advice and encouragement from brother Colley this past week. If a beautiful, blonde 20 something can stay married to an old geezer for his money...can you stay married and be the faithful spouse you should be for heaven? Love you all!

Be Faithful!

[Tim]
