SYMPATHY EXTENDED

We extend our sincere sympathies to the family of Vernice Cottrell and family at the sudden passing of her young brother-in-law, Lance Steele, on Friday. Lance leaves behind two daughters, ages 10 and 17, in addition to his wife (Vernice's sister, Tabby).

We also express sympathy to Allen Womacks family at the passing of his Aunt Sandy, who has battled cancer and been on our prayer list for some time.

On Billy Graham and the "Importance" of Baptism by Jason T Carter

Facebook was flooded with posts about Billy Graham as the news of his passing spread on Wednesday. Many shared memories of hearing the popular preacher, others recounted some of his achievements in religion. He was commended by some and criticized by others.

Those who criticized Mr. Graham's preaching, specifically his failure to preach the "whole counsel of God" (Acts 20:27), were themselves rebuked with the statement, "God alone will judge!" In truth, no mortal man can preach anyone into heaven or condemn anyone to hell. It is God and God alone who knows all there is to know about a man (2 Corinthians 5:10). However, the Scriptures also teach that we can identify false teachers "by their fruits" (Matthew 7:15-20).

If you continue reading in Matthew 7:21-23, Jesus talks about religious people who claimed to do good works, but who would be denied entrance to the kingdom of heaven. Despite all of their good works, Jesus says, "I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!"

Mr. Graham's teaching was good, up to a point. He stressed the importance of faith. He extolled the value of morality. However, he stopped short. Concerning baptism, he said, "I believe baptism is important, and I have been baptized. But I think we violate the Scriptures when we make baptism the prime requirement for salvation."

First, note that Mr. Graham accuses some of making baptism "the prime" requirement. Brethren, baptism must be based upon faith in Christ as the Son of God and coupled with repentance. It is no more or less "prime" than any of God's commands.

Second, compare Mr. Graham's opinion (that baptism is "important") to the inspired Word. Read Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21; Galatians 3:27; Romans 6:3-6. Do you get a sense of mere importance in those passages, or is it directly related to salvation?

Many have sadly been deceived by Mr. Graham's teachings. May we all strive to truth in the Word of God rather than the words of uninspired men as we seek to obey our Father.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Craig and Milton

We are happy to inform you that Stella and I are on our way to South Africa. Both of us have doctor's appointment tomorrow. We shall update you about the results. Please remember us in your prayers.

It rained heavily last Sunday. Some farmers are busy planting beans because the time for planting maize is over. Crops which were planted late look good but very few farmers planted late on small hectares. The early planted maize has failed to recover. Sad! It is good though that people, livestock and wildlife will all have enough drinking water this year. I have just received a message from brother Thomas Mpanduki who preaches in Gokwe. He says too much rain in his area has destroyed their late planted crops. Their fields are now full of water. Looks like the whole world is experiencing extreme weather patterns this year...storms, snow and etc. We are still compiling data concerning congregations which will need food assistance this year. We will let you know soon.

Just want to mention that the Florida massacre of students and their educators is hurting. We are praying for the bereaved families who lost their beloved ones. Are the authorities failing to curb or stop these senseless killings? We are noticing that people talk about this when such tragedy happens but soon go quiet until another shooting happens. Americans must put their heads together and take action...mere talking will not help in saving these precious innocent lives.

In His service

Velaphi
