Modesty By Dub McClish

Modesty can apply to one's salary, house, or any number of things in the sense of that which is moderate, appropriate, humble, or unostentatious. However, there is another important implication of the word having to do with one's moral convictions and the respect one has for his or her own body. In this sense, Paul commanded women to "adorn themselves in modest apparel" (I Timothy 2:9). The Arndt Gingrich lexicon says that "modest" here means "honorable," "respectable." We understand Paul to be talking about wearing clothing that indicates moral chastity, purity, and a sense of decency that Christians must have.

While both men and women ought to dress modestly, it is noteworthy that this instruction is directed peculiarly to women. It was not done accidentally. Biologically and psychologically men and women differ greatly. While admitting to some exceptions, men are more easily aroused and aggressive sexually than women. The Lord understood this and thus specially warned men against looking at and lusting after a woman (Mathew 5:28). Dressing (or undressing) so as to invite sexual stimulation is a problem pertaining primarily to women and their dress. Only a lack of modesty will cause a physically mature female to be more undressed than dressed in public places. Women (young and old) who wear scanty swim wear, shorts, and halter tops, mid thigh length skirts, low-cut and see-through blouses, tight pants and such like in public places are advertising their immodesty. It is baffling and heartbreaking to see the shameless display of skin at public functions (the super market, public beaches, pools, school activities, etc.) by some Christian women and girls. It is even sadder to see such things as "spaghetti strap" sundresses, see through blouses, and very short skirts worn to worship assemblies.

I fail to comprehend how otherwise right-thinking girls and women can think that it is in keeping with Christian purity to so expose their bodies. Neither can I understand how Christian fathers and/or husbands can permit or encourage it. Something is wrong with the husband who wants his wife to share those charms (even visually) with any other man. Further, how can a Christian father allow his teen-aged daughter to dress in such a way as to invite the wrong kind of attention? Christian husbands and fathers could stop such immodesty at once if they would. Immodesty is expected in people of the world, but for the sake of Christ, ought not his people to be modest and decent (Romans 12:1-2)

Missionary Work & Benevolence

MISSIONARY SUPPORT INFORMATION

Velaphi recently sent a message saying:

Seven souls gave their lives to the Lord yesterday at Mvana and we baptized them at the Khami river. We asked brother Ndlovu who worships there to baptize and corrected him when he made some mistakes so that if someone repents they can now go ahead and baptize him/her and not wait for us to come from the city. We are happy that this newly planted congregation is growing and we give all glory to God. Having difficulty sending pictures but will soon.

In His service
