Family News and Notes

We are glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

REJOICING WITH ANGELS

We rejoice with angels in heaven that Pam Davis was baptized into Christ on Friday evening. We are so pleased with her decision. Please take a moment to welcome her to the family of God!

Teacher Appreciation

The Teacher Appreciation Banquet is being planned for April 26. Please sign up in the foyer. All teachers who are attending, should send an email to Brian Jones with the following information about your first car: Color, Year, Make and Model. This info is for a game, so please do not share it with others in the meantime.

Things to Know/Remember

- * There is a sign up for the teachers banquet in the foyer. If you taught in 2013 or currently, you and your spouse are invited to attend. Please sign up by April 15th.
- * Wayne Baker is planning to restore the barn on the church grounds in order to make it useful for youth gatherings, etc. He will be needing help with the project. More info to come.
- * Please give prayer list updates to Jennifer Leas.

Don't Tell Me "The Day of the Gospel Meeting is Over!"

The beginning of our gospel meeting is just one week away and it will provide so many opportunities for us to serve the Lord. Let me remind you that this effort is one of the primary tool of outreach we have. Every program we have is tied to evangelism, but the focus of this one should be to reach the lost and bring them to Jesus as well as to strengthen the church.

We are counting on each of you to step forward to insure that this effort surpasses any we have had in the past. Sometimes, when we are involved in an effort we have tried before, there is a tendency to pull back and not to put our heart and soul into what we are doing. Just being aware of this tendency can help us avoid this pitfall.

Over the next several days you will be challenged in many ways. It may seem that what you do is insignificant, but when all these small contributions are added together they have a tremendous impact. The strongest ropes are made up of thousands of tiny threads working together for a common purpose. The same is true of the work of the church. Success comes because so many are working for a common cause.

Don't think that the day of the gospel meeting is over. Brother Dan Jenkins recently conducted a meeting in a small Tennessee town where there are about fifty members of the church. In the three weeks before the meeting they had baptized six. During the three days of the meeting there were two others baptized and a brother was restored who had been away from the Lord for 45 years. One of the ladies baptized was someone who had never had an organized study with anyone before the meeting. She learned the truth and responded to it during the meeting. The day of the gospel meeting is not over!

The other lady baptized was someone whose husband had been a member of the church for years, but she had never made the commitment. There were so many tears of joy when they saw her respond. The day of the gospel meeting is not over!

The brother who was restored pointed to the baptistery and recalled his baptism 45 years ago. You should have seen the joy he now has.

Are there individuals like these we know who could be touched just one week from now? Think about it. Pray about it. The day of the gospel meeting is not over!

In order for any effort to succeed we must work! This article was originally written by brother Jenkins and was edited with his permission. [Tim]
