Not Lagging in Diligence by Jason T Carter

In Romans 12, Paul offers a number of short exhortations to his readers. The King James Version translates the first part of verse 11, "Not slothful in business." The Christian should be diligent for his employer, but the context this verse has more to do with the business of the church.

We sing a song, "I want to be a worker for the Lord." Do we mean those words when we sing them? Do we truly want to "be busy every day in the vineyard of the Lord," or are we just giving lip service?

All disciples are to be actively engaged in the work of the Lord's church. We should be busy making disciples (Matthew 28:19), encouraging each other (Hebrews 10:24-25), and helping the needy (Galatians 6:10; James 1:27).

We do not always see the fruit of our labors, but we must not give up. If we are mocked or rejected or persecuted by those around us, we keep obeying God (1 Peter 2:19-20). The things we do in the name of the Lord are not done in vain (1 Corinthians 15:58). May we never lag in diligence when it comes to the Lord's work.

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS!

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

MARCH 2019 MONTHLY REPORT : PART 1

Dear Brother Craig

Greetings from Zimbabwe in the mighty name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We hope that our reports for the Lord's work in March 2019 will find you well and busy in His vineyard.

GROWING INTO MATURITY

Brother Jay Lockhart who preaches for the Lord's church at Benton, Kentucky once said:"human beings have five ages: Chronological(the number of birthdays one has had), Physical (how one is preserved), Emotional (how one acts and reacts), Mental(wisdom and knowledge) and Spiritual (one's relationship with God). It is easy to see how one might be thirty-five Chronologically, twenty-five Physically, forty-five Mentally, fifteen Emotionally and five Spiritually. In the latter three ages, we must seek to be mature people. As we grow older by having additional birthdays and as our physical bodies begin to deteriorate, let us seek Mental, Emotional and Spiritual maturity as we, with God's help, deal with our problems and have happy, productive and influential marriages. May each of us make that choice." We trust and hope that these wise words will help each of us to keep on growing unto maturity.

BAPTISMS

We are happy that nine souls responded positively to the preaching of the Gospel Truth during the month in review and were baptized. We give all glory to God! Two were baptized at Pelandaba West, two at Bulawayo Central and five at Sailor Jack. Please pray for these newly

-born in Christ so that they may grow in knowledge of His Word and be fruitful in His vineyard.

PREACHING AND TEACHING

We managed to preach and teach the Bible to many people at Chesa Forest, Ntabazinduna, SailorJack and the City Centre. People in the rural areas are more receptive to the preaching of the Gospel than those in the urban areas because in towns and cities, people are always too busy doing this and that and have little time for the Lord.

BIBLE LESSONS

We received 22 WBS lessons from students for marking and sent 27 to WBS students in Bulawayo and adjacent areas.
