We Are Not Alone

While we live in a very transparent society we can often find ourselves very isolated and alone. It is commonly the case that, during these moments of solitude, we are lured into a false sense of security. Hence, we let down our spiritual guard and regularly are overcome by temptation and sin. The seclusion of the hotel room while away from home offers the opportunity to view pornography, the privacy of a meeting room allows for an office flirtation to become more serious, the solitude of the car allows for words of anger to be spoken, the secrecy of a confidence affords an opportunity to violate that trust.

The fact is though that we are NEVER alone. God knows the thoughts in your mind, He hears the words from your lips and he sees the sinful act no matter our attempts to conceal them from all others (Job 34:21; Psalm 139:1-6). And He will hold you accountable for them in this life and the next. He hates the wicked imaginations and acts of a foolish heart.

We cannot hide from the all-seeing eyes of Jehovah (Proverbs 15:3; Psalm 11:4). God sees and watches all you do (Proverbs 5:21; Jeremiah 17:10). In His sight every foolish thought is sin (Proverbs 24:9; Ezekiel 14:4 Matthew 5:28). He sees where I go and what I do.

Am I arrogant (Colossians 2:18)?

Do I hold grudges (Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 18:35)?

Do I assume the worst of others (1 Timothy 6:3-5)?

Do I envy the good fortune of others (James 3:14-16)?

Do I hate anyone in your heart (Leviticus 19:17)?

Do I curse authority under your breath (Ecclesiastes 10:20)?

Do I have a quick temper that often offends God (Proverbs 14:29; 16:32; James 1:19-21)?

It is imperative for us to remember that the all-seeing eyes of Jehovah are looking at everything we say, hear, and do. Why? Because He is some angry God who is just waiting to pounce on us the minute that we "mess up?" No! He is looking for faithful men so that He might bless them (2 Chronicles 16:9; Psalm 34:11-16).

God walks with us and wants to bless us. Let us each ensure that we are always aware of His presence and live obedient and loyal lives!

Be faithful! [Tim]

Notes from Zimbabwe
Missionary, Velaphi Mlangeni

Youth Group News

Excerpt from Velaphi's current monthly report:

“Zimbabweans voted overwhelmingly in approval of the new country's constitution. The voting was very peaceful indeed. The acceptance of a new constitution will pave way for general elections probably in June this year. Please pray for Zimbabwe so that violence fails to raise its ugly head during and after the impending general elections.

Prayer Request

Please pray for the three families who lost their beloved ones in March 2013. Death causes deep pain and only God can heal the bleeding wounds. Please pray for the ladies who will have their annual lectureship at Victoria Falls from May 2-5 2013. We need to be united in fighting the Devil who is stalking individual Christians, our homes and congregations everyday.

Thank You, May the Lord bless all those who are dedicated in keeping the Gospel chariot burning in Zimbabwe. If there is any good thing we need to do for the Lord, let us do it now for we shall pass this way but once.

In His service, Velaphi”
