Humility Versus Arrogance (1 Kings 1-5) by Tim Dooley

As the life of king David came to an end another brief power struggle ensued. The king had declared that his son Solomon would take his place upon the throne of Israel. However, Adonijah "exalted himself, saying, I will be king" (1 Kings 1:5). Even after Solomon had taken his rightful place, Adonijah plots against the throne, but to his ultimate demise. In contrast, Solomon's humility is seen in his asking the Lord for wisdom to rule the people.

How true the inspired words he would later pen, "A man's pride shall bring him low: but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit" (Proverbs 29:23). Unfortunately, the arrogant man seldom sees himself as arrogant and only sees it in others. More self-awareness is needed in order to overcome a prideful heart. Humility is also a sign of love for "love does not boast" and is not arrogant (1 Corinthians 13:4).

God exalts the humble who love Him and each other, but will bring low the proud and arrogant man who loves only himself! Be faithful. [Tim]
