I Don't Fear, Because I Fear by Neil Richey

Earlier this morning I read about a teacher who injured his back and as part of his rehab, he had to wear a plaster cast around the upper part of his body—it covered his entire upper torso, and around his back. The good news was that it was thin enough that he could easily conceal it under his shirt and no one knew that he had it on.

This teacher had a class that was made up of mostly disorderly and rowdy students—in point of fact, his students were the toughest in the school. He was slightly afraid of how the school year would go. One morning he entered the classroom and because of the heat, he opened a window to let in a cool breeze. He sat down at his desk and got busy with work. A rather strong breeze entered the room blew his papers around the desk, and flipped his tie over his shoulder. So, he took out a stapler, and stapled his tie to his chest. From that time forward, his students were some of the most disciplined in school. The teacher no longer feared his class because of their fear of the teacher.

Like the teacher, we don't have to fear because of fear. That is, we don't have to be afraid of things, because we fear the Lord. Repeatedly in our Bible we read words like "fear Him", "fear God", "fear the Lord your God", and so on. When we have such a deep and abiding reverential fear of God, we do not have to live in a state of fear.

I don't have to fear death, because I fear the Lord. "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me" (Psa. 23:4). Death is not a curse, but a blessing.
