Family News and Notes

Welcome! We are glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

Happy Mother's Day

We would like to wish a very happy and blessed Mother's Day to all of our wonderful mothers! What a wonderful blessing they are in our lives!

Requests and Reminders

Please see Brian Jones if you can help with the following:

- * Medical expertise...if you are CPR trained, a life-guard, nurse, paramedic, etc) & are willing to help if a medical emergency were to occur during Class or worship services, please let Brian know.
- * Allergies? We would like to be mindful of those with allergies when planning church dinners, celebrations, etc. If you or someone in your family has a food allergy, please let Brian know so that we may add them to our list.
- * Potter Children's Home in Bowling Green, KY, needs the following items: canned chili, gallon size storage bags, individual size bags of chips, disinfectant wipes, 10" Styrofoam plates. These need to be at the building today..

IF THESE HAD BEEN MY CHILDREN

Our guest blog this week comes from Jerry Carmichael. Evangelist at the Grant County Church of Christ in Dry Ridge, KY. <http://www.grantcountyycc.org/>

"IF THESE HAD BEEN MY CHILDREN"

One of my greatest roles in life has been that of "father". In years passed, our house has rung with merry voices and childish laughter. However, I have no children. God gave us, on loan, two precious souls to nurture and cherish for a period of time to fit them for the Kingdom.

If these had been my children, I would have loved them so much that I couldn't bear to punish them. I would have over-looked their childish tantrums and if they should strike me while angry, I would have smiled indulgently. But they were the Lord's and I am His servant. Therefore, I had to raise them His way. "He who spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him disciplines him promptly" (Proverbs 13:24).

If these had been my children, I would have allowed them to dress, act, talk and become like the world around them. But they belonged to the Lord and He has warned, "Do not be conformed to the world" (Romans12:2).

If these had been my children, I would have provided them with every material thing they asked for. I would have worked day and night to give them all the best of everything and try to help them to ever avoid having to work for anything. But, they belonged to the Lord and He has said, "An inheritance gained hastily in the beginning, will not bring happiness in the end" (Proverbs 20:21).

If these had been my children, I would have brought them up in "the way that seems right unto a man." How sad it would have been to find out too late that, "the end thereof is the way of death" (Proverbs 14:12).

Thanks be to God Almighty for His wisdom in raising "His" children. "And you fathers do not provoke your children unto wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4).

Notes from Zimbabwe
Missionary, Velaphi Mlangeni

Dear Brethren

The congregations who have supported the work in Southern Zimbabwe want to thank you for all your past help. Last year was a terrible year for many of those in Zimbabwe. Many fellow Christians were going hungry and facing literal starvation. This lack of food weakened their bodies so much that disease became very common.

We thank God this year has been better for many of them. The rains several months ago have helped the situation and we pray to God this will continue.

However, as our brother Velaphi reports, many villages are still facing difficult times. The heat became so hot after the rains, the land just dried up and did not produce any crops. These people still need our help. You just cannot get the attention of the people for spiritual teaching when their children and grandchildren are hungry.

Twenty seven people obeyed the gospel of Christ last month. Velaphi and the rest of the WBS team continue to do a great work in the name of Christ. Please continue to remember the good people in your prayers as they continue to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. Rainbow Church of Christ
