Are You Excited? by Jason T Carter

As Jesus and His disciples traveled from Judea to Galilee, the Lord stopped at Jacob's well in Samaria to rest while the disciples continued to the city to purchase food. It is recorded in John 4 that He conversed with the Samaritan woman, explaining to her that God seeks people to worship Him "in spirit and truth," and revealing to her His Messianic identity. The Lord was so engrossed in this conversation, that He refused the food the disciples brought back to Him. He told them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work."

The woman was so excited about Jesus that she left her waterpot behind, going back to the city and declaring, "Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"

Twenty-first century Christians need to be as excited about the words of Jesus as this first century Samaritan woman. We need to be telling of His love and grace and mercy and forgiveness to anyone within earshot.

The Scriptures tell us that "many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman." She was willing to tell others what she knew, and lead them to the Lord. When the Samaritans came to Him and learned from Him, "many more believed because of His own word."

What can we learn from this? Start by putting it into your own words. Who is Jesus? What has He done? What can He do? Then, as your friends' interest is piqued, lead them to learn from "His own word." Help them learn about the redemption offered by the Father to all through the blood of His Son, using the Scriptures.

Everyone needs the gospel. Everyone needs the blood of Christ. Everyone needs someone to be excited enough and to love them enough to teach them the truth.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

One of the great servants of the Lord in Zimbabwe, Austin Vimba has graduated to heaven after a 73 year sojourn among us. Austin passed away peacefully on 29 April 2017. He suffered a severe heart attack while I was seated next to him. He was laid to rest at Irisvale on 4 May 2017. Brother Dorian Flynn from the United States preached at his funeral. Almost two thousand people from all over Zimbabwe flocked to his funeral. Brother Dorian described Austin as a gallant soldier of Christ who had a great passion for preaching and winning lost souls. Austin, who trained as a preacher at Nhowe Bible School and at Heritage Bible College in Alabama, USA, planted several congregations in Bulawayo and other parts of Matebeleland during his lifetime. We will surely miss him. Please remember to pray for his wife Miriam and their family.
