Why Not Now?

I remember having a conversation that took place years ago with a brother about education. I was considering returning to school to finish my college degree. I remember making the excuse of being almost fifty years old when I would finish. This kind brother responded that, unless I was to die before then or Jesus was to return, "You are going to be fifty anyway. You can be fifty with a degree or you can be fifty without a degree." Well, this past week I finished that degree, and I owe so much to my wife and children, as well as my Point Pleasant family, for all the love, support, and encouragement I have been so blessed with. Without you I could not have done it!

Spiritually speaking everyone dies! That, in and of itself, is a sad statement. Out of context and viewed through the prism of human wisdom the thought of death is distressing. And so mankind asks, "What is the meaning of life." The psalmist, in Psalm 86-90, is right when he says that his life draws to the grave and he is but another man who will die and be buried (88:3-4). He says that our lives are like a story that is told and then it is over: and if we live to be 80 years old we soon die and leave this life (90:9-10). Over this we have no control. And when this life is over we will stand before God and give an answer and we need to know that in His dwelling place is justice and judgment.

So many make excuses for not obeying the Christian life. "I'm too old." "I don't know enough." "I'm not good enough." "What if...?" Look, the fact is that we are all going to die and there is nothing we can do about it (Ecclesiastes 8:8). And after death each one of us will stand before a righteous Judge and give an account for our lives (Hebrews 9:27; 2 Corinthians 5:10). So you are going to stand before God one way or another. Why would you not prepare yourself for that inevitable day?

We are often asked, "How are you spending your days?" The more immediate and important question is "How are you spending your day?" Today! "Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts" (Hebrews 4:7). "I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2).

Make your life worth while: love, serve, obey, and be faithful! Don't delay...why not now? [Tim]

FROM THE ELDERS

KEITH KASARJIAN POSTED THIS INFORMATION ON FACEBOOK FOR ANYONE WHO IS INTERESTED IN HELPING WITH DISASTER RELIEF IN NEPAL.

"NEPAL UPDATE: Many of you have asked how you can help and now I know how to answer that question. The pressing need at this point is food (rice, etc.), tarps (monsoon season begins June 1) and building materials.

Checks can be made out to the Prattville church of Christ and earmarked "Nepal" and mailed to 344 E. Main St., Prattville, AL 36067. In addition to being tax deductible, they will come at a time when they are needed most.

100% of the funds will go for relief. I am still planning to go to Kathmandu May 28, but will continue to monitor the situation. Regardless, we will make sure the funds get to the ones who need it most. Thank you!"

Message from Velaphi Melangani

POINT THE WAY YOUTH GROUP

EXCERPTS FROM VELAPHI'S NEWSLETTER:

The Lord blessed His work today with six souls who were baptized. We had to walk for a long distance in the bush close to the mountains where water had trickled and formed some pools. We truly enjoyed all the moment of our visit to Kumbudzi today. Brother Jacob was asked to lead in singing, brother Nqobizitha presided over the Lord's supper and I was asked to preach. My sermon was entitled: Who is going to be saved? Text Matthew 24:12-14.

After the worship service, we distributed mealie meal and cabbages and then went for baptism. We arrived back home at 6pm. May God receive all the glory!
