Does Doctrine Matter? by Tim Dooley

Several years ago, Rick Warren released a book called The Purpose Driven Life. While the premise of the book is a good one, much religious error is propagated throughout its pages. It is not a book that should be read or studied by those who do not have a good grounding in the Scriptures, as they may be misled by the author's errant views.

Take, for instance, what Mr. Warren says on page 34, concerning the final judgment: "God won't ask you about your religious background or doctrinal views. The only thing that will matter is, did you accept what Jesus did for you and did you learn to love and trust him?" Think about this statement for a moment. Does not one's "religious background and doctrinal views" depend directly upon one's acceptance, love, and trust of the Savior? If one truly accepts Jesus, he will follow Him. "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6). Do you accept Jesus as the only way into a righteous relationship with the Father?

If one truly loves Jesus, he will follow Him. "If you love Me, keep My commandments" (John 14:15). Do you obey Jesus, or do you only say you love Him?

If one truly trusts Jesus, he will follow Him. "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned" (Mark 16:16). Do you trust Jesus, or do you "explain away" this crystal-clear statement?

One who accepts, loves, and trusts Jesus will have the "religious background and doctrinal views" that God expects and desires of His people. "But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine" (Titus 2:1).

Doctrine does matter! We must give heed to those things taught in the New Testament—not only accept them as true, but obey them! If we reject the words of the Lord, if we rebel against Him and refuse to obey, we have no one to blame if we are lost (John 12:48).
