1 Peter 2:21-23

[21] For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. [22] He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. [23] When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. (ESV)

We never intend to leave anyone out. If you notice an omission/error, please let Jennifer know so we can update our calendar! Thanks.

Last week I ordered some parts that I needed to fix up my new (read used – from a garage sale) lawn tractor. The parts guy told me that the parts would be in by Thursday and that he would call when they were ready to be picked up. The dealer closes at 5:00 and when I hadn't heard anything by 4:30 I called and found out that they were in and had been available for several hours. There was no way I could get there before they closed so I am planning to go today to get them.

This happens frequently it seems. I'll call and let you know seems to an empty promise. I was aggravated that that I wasn't informed in a timely manner. I was busy and was planning my day (and a good part of several days) based upon the information I was waiting to hear. All of this made me stop and give thanks that God does not leave us waiting. He has not left us without knowing what is truly important and wondering how to plan for our spiritual future.

God has never left mankind wondering. We understand how stressful it is to be left being unsure about a matter we deem to be of great importance. David said, "The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue" (2 Samuel 23:2). In Acts 2:28 Peter quotes David as saying, "Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance."

When Jesus came to earth He delivered the new law for all mankind. A law that would rule the spiritual kingdom and judge every man in eternity (John 12:48-50). He told His disciples, "Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you" (John 15:15).

He even promised that following His death, resurrection and ascension back to heaven that He would not leave us without guidance. In John 14:26 He promised, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."

The Apostle Paul said that God had kept the promise and "...made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:" (Ephesians 1:9). And that by "revelation he made known unto me the mystery... Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;" (Ephesians 3:3-5).

The Bible is His call to us, His divine revelation, His informative, life-giving law. He has now "made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:" (Romans 16:26). Thanks be to God that "According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:" (2 Peter 1:3).

God is calling you to come to Him (Matthew 11:28-30). He has kept His promise to bring salvation to the counter and let you know that it is available to you to lay hold of and put to good use. If you have never given yourself to Him in humble obedience: why not? Repent, confess you faith in Jesus as the Son of God and be buried with Him in baptism for the remission of your sins.

If you have not been faithful to Him: why not come home? "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me" (Revelation 3:20).

Be faithful! [Tim]

Notes from Zimbabwe
Missionary, Velaphi Mlangeni

“13 souls gave their lives to the Lord at Gcabayi last Sunday and were baptized at Mzingwane river. Gcabayi is a new congregation which we planted last month. We give all praise to the Lord! Stella had prepared some sandwiches and cool drinks for the hungry people and they enjoyed the food after the worship service after we had come from the river to baptize those who had surrendered their lives to the Lord. We also distributed some food to the needy. They were very grateful indeed! Most of those we baptized were youths and it was good to see younger people giving their lives to the Lord.

A BIG THANK YOU TO ALL OUR LOVING BROTHERS AND SISTERS AT POINT PLEASANT WHO CONTINUE TO SEND US MESSAGES OF ENCOURAGEMENT!! WE LOVE YOU ALL AND APPRECIATE VERY MUCH YOUR LOVE AND CARE. WE ARE TRULY BLESSED TO HAVE CHRISTIAN FRIENDS WHO LOVE US SO MUCH! WE PRAY THAT SOMEDAY WE MAY RECIPROCATE YOUR LOVE BY GIVING YOU LOVING HUGS!!! MAY THE LORD SHOWER YOU WITH GREAT BLESSINGS!”
