Hidden Sin by Jason T Carter

An All-Star second baseman, seemingly on the path to baseball immortality in Cooperstown's Hall of Fame, was handed an 80-day suspension for using performance enhancing substances. However, it was not a performance enhancer that showed up in his drug tests, but a diuretic commonly used as a masking agent. In other words, the player was trying to hide what he was really doing. Are we guilty of masking or hiding things in a spiritual sense? We may attend church services regularly, participate in Bible classes, lead in worship...but are we hiding something from our brethren?

Paul encouraged the brethren at Philippi to do the right thing, whether he was aware of their behavior or not. He wrote, "Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12). We should always strive to be holy, even if no one on this earth sees us.

We can be sure of one thing: even if we are "successful" in hiding sinful behaviors from others in the church, we cannot hide from God. Paul assures us of this fact. "Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust we are well known in your consciences" (2 Corinthians 5:9-11).

Let us not mask or hide our weaknesses, temptations, and sins from each other, but lean on each other for spiritual support and strength. "Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (James 5:16).

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

FOOD RELIEF

It was a great day today for 76 families at Ntabazinduna who received mealie meal.

Christians here failed to realize any harvest this year due to extreme heat which destroyed all their crops.

All recipients of this food were very happy indeed. We bought it for $456.00 and used $40.00 for fuel. Each 20kg bag of mealie meal cost $6.00. These Christians requested us to extend their gratefulness to our loving brothers and sisters at Rainbow for remembering them during this time of great need. Brother Siphon preached and his sermon text was Ephesians 6: 11-18." May love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen." 1Cor 16:24.

In His service, Velaphi
