Attitude is Everything! by Tim Dooley

As we read through the Psalms it becomes increasingly evident that there is a tremendous difference in the attitude of the Psalmist and the attitude of most people (even Christians) today. In Psalm 56-60 the faithful oppressed and afflicted; tormented and tested; abused, cursed, and neglected, never turns from God, never complains, never gets reacts with wrath or vengeance. Instead he always turns to God, asks His favor, and leaves it with Him.

What a great lesson for us when we think things are not going as we think they should. We live in a very selfish, greedy, and impatient society. We want, we think, we feel, we wish, and we want it now. When things don't go our way, when we feel neglected, troubled, and rejected, how do we respond? When others take us for granted, abuse us, frustrate us, lash out at us, how does the faithful Christian react? The fact is, we cannot control how anyone acts or what others do, but we can our response. Take it to God, leave it with Him. He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). Be faithful! [Tim]

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

APRIL 2019 MONTHLY REPORT : PART 5 Report from Siph

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, hoping this report finds you well in the Lord.

On the 5th of April 2019, I attended a men’s lectureship at the World Bible School on improving our knowledge in doing the Lord’s work. The following day on the 6th, we attended a wedding of our youth. On the 7th I preached at Pumula South and taught as well. The Saturday of 13th was a men’s leadership seminar at the WBS. On the 14th of April Velaphi preached at Pumula South and I taught a Bible lesson. Sunday the 21st, I preached and taught a lesson at Pumula South Church of Christ. On the 25th we departed for Lupane in Matebeleland North where there was a Ladies Gospel Meeting which started on that day up to Sunday the 28th. Three men from Byo and some from Lupane were engaged in supplying water and cooking for the ladies. On Sunday the 28th I preached at the Lupane congregation.

I thank you brethren for your unwavering support. May God bless you.

Yours in Christ. Siphon Nkala.

Report from Dumisani-Enyandeni

Introduction.
 We are greatly blessed by your love and sacrifice that you continue to show us all. We greet you in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 0.1 This month, we followed up and made some visitations.
 1.1 We followed up on Misheck Moyo, a long time Bible Student who still has not made a final decision to present a last lesson on 'The meaning of Repentance.

 0.2 Personal Work Together with Bro. J.Siziba, we visited Mr. John Ncube of village 3 who had a question on what happens when a person dies. (Eccl 12:7; Heb 9:27; In 11; 24-25 ; Jn 5:28-29)
 Visitation. Together as a congregation, again we visited an elderly church member who now fails to attend Church services. Purpose of the visit was to share the word of comfort and encourage her in her faith. Hymns were sung and a prayer made for her wellbeing. At another occasion, we visited Mrs Sarah Mpofu, a widow who stays at Village 3. Her daughter, Janet Mpofu, a School teacher, was down with abdominal pain. Our teaching came from (3 Jn 1:2 ; James 5:13 -16). (TO BE CONTINUED)
