Exhort One Another by Jason T Carter

“And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching” (Hebrews 10:24-25)

How blessed are we to have many opportunities to gather together and encourage each other? From Sunday morning Bible class & worship to Sunday evening, mid-week studies, gospel meetings & seminars, we have many occasions to receive sound spiritual nourishment.

When we come together, God commands us to exhort or encourage each other. One way to do this is by taking notice of the good things our brothers and sisters are doing and thanking them.

Have you thanked any of the teachers from Vacation Bible School? Or those who helped prepare the snacks each day? How about those who led the singing, or those who helped with decorations, props, and bulletin boards? Many people were involved, and should be recognized.

Have you thanked the men and women who are taking care of our teenagers, organizing activities and driving them to youth rallies and camps? Or those who teach the children on Sunday morning and Wednesday night?

Have you thanked the parents who bring their children to learn more about God? There are many secular activities that can distract them from spiritual matters, and they need to be encouraged for attending as many services as possible.

I hope that everyone is praying for the elders and deacons, but have you told them that you are praying for them? Have you asked them if there is anything specific you can include in your supplications to the Almighty? James says, “The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much” (James 5:16). Let us seek to live righteously and pray fervently for our overseers and servants.

Look for opportunities to encourage each other, and thank each other. “Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith” (Galatians 6:10).

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

World Bible School relevance

"The plea for restoration of the New Testament Christianity was a familiar and frequent theme among pioneer preachers. For well over a century, brethren have been calling for a return to the Bible and for obedience to the authority of Christ." (Alan E. Highers) The World Bible School is relevant today, as it spearheads the fact that we can obey the gospel of Christ and become precisely what people were in the first century without subscribing to any human creed which has caused so much confusion and falling away from faith in the religious world today. Acts 2:36-38; Acts 20:28. Therefore, the plea for New Testament Christianity is still and will continue to be paramount and valid as long as the world exists.

Baptism

We are happy to inform you that during the month in review, six souls obeyed the Lord and were baptized. We give all praise to the Lord!

Leadership Workshops

We continued to fortify the moral and spiritual fiber of the church leadership in the rural areas. The sins which damned Israel are the same sins confronting the church today. If we fail to teach the Bible as our Lord commanded us in Matthew 28, the church will slide into moral and spiritual decadence as Israel did.

Food Relief

When we have enough food on our tables, sometimes it is hard for us to believe that there are families which go to bed with empty stomachs. True, we cannot feed everyone, but the few we are helping with food, God is glorified. Every time we distribute this food relief, recipients express inexplicable joy. During the month in review, we distributed food to 43 families. May our good Lord continue blessing God's family at Rainbow for helping the poor in the rural areas who are always facing hunger in their daily lives.

In His service,
Velaphi
