Fathers, Are You Fulfilling Your Duty? by Aaron Veyon

"Hear, my children, the instruction of a father, and give attention to know understanding; for I give you good doctrine: do not forsake my law. When I was my father's son, tender and the only one in the sight of my mother, he also taught me, and said to me: 'Let your heart retain my words; keep my commands, and live. Get wisdom! Get understanding!...' "(Prov. 4:1-5).

One parent said, "We will not influence our children in making choices and decisions in matters of religion!" Another parent replied, "But why not? The ads will!

The press will! The movies will! The neighbors will! The forces of sin will! The politicians will! We use our influence over flowers, vegetables, cattle, etc. Shall we ignore our own children? May God forgive us if we do!"

All parents have a God-given duty toward their children; and this responsibility begins with "dad." Paul said, "And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord"(Eph. 6:4). Truly, friends, our nation needs more dads like that.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Gospel

We are happy to report that our Gospel Meeting at Mvana during the month in review was good. Christians from four surrounding congregations attended including many villagers. The theme of this Gospel Meeting was: The Living Faith James 2:26 "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."

Burials

We had two other burials at Emganwini and Bayethe. At both occasions, we comforted the bereaved and also encouraged mourners to prepare for death. We reminded them as the scriptures point out that: " Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord..." Rev 14:13.

Visitations

We also visited congregations in the rural areas and urged them to remain faithful to the Lord. Rev 2:10.

Family News

Our daughter Lithule who is suffering from a kidney disease continues to improve. Since she came from China she has been taking some medication which she gets monthly from the China Disease Hospital. Her face which had frozen is now bright. Her jovial mood sounds like she has been born again. She sent us this message from South Africa: " Mom and Dad, my body is now full of life again. I am enjoying my food and can hear and enjoy birds singing and the sound of my feet while walking. I can now feel a firm handshake and am enjoying the throb of faint solemn melodies and the setting of the sun. It is like I am in a new world of my own." It reminded me of that parable of the prodigal son when the father said: "for this My son was dead but now is alive again." Luke 15:24. We always give glory to God for her recovery and shall always be indebted to our loving brothers and sisters who sacrificed so much to pay for her medical expenses. Storms of time shall never obliterate such love in our hearts! blessing you!
