BE NOBLE!

"And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." Acts 17:10-11

The Responsibility of the Hearer by Jason T Carter

The listener has a great responsibility in preaching. Observe the attitude and action of the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11: "Then the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so."

We are to consider how our lives compare to the Word, not resisting the preaching by making excuses or rationalizing sinful behavior. We must prepare our minds and hearts for the lesson, ready to apply it so that we can serve God more faithfully. It is not enough to just sit quietly and listen to the sermon; we must act accordingly based on what we learn. "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does" (James 1:22-25).

We also have a responsibility to make sure the preacher is staying on track, that he is not preaching doctrine that contradicts the revealed Word. We should study along with the lesson, not just accepting what the preacher says, but verifying that his message is in agreement with God's inspired Word.

Men who commit their lives to gospel preaching take on an important work; we should be as supportive of them as we possibly can. As long as they preach the truth we should encourage them at every opportunity. Show them that we are listening by turning to the Scriptures during the sermon, by taking notes, by putting their words into action in our everyday lives. Tell them how much we appreciate the sacrifice they have made to serve God.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

We shall begin by looking at the material published by the Gospel Vidette magazine on March 1979. Quote : "No Congress of the United States ever assembled, on surveying the state of the Union, has met with a more pleasing prospect than that which appears at the present time. In the domestic field there is tranquility and contentment, harmonious relations between management and wage earner, freedom from industrial strife, and the highest record of years of prosperity. In the foreign field there is peace, the good will which comes from mutual understanding, and knowledge that the problems which a short time ago appeared so ominous are yielding to the touch of manifest friendship. The great wealth created by our enterprise and industry, and saved by our economy, had had the widest distribution among our own people, and has gone out in a steady stream to serve the charity and the business of the world....The country can regard the present with satisfaction and anticipate the future with optimism." - Calvin Coolidge, from the text of the annual Message of the President as delivered to Congress.

This portion of President Coolidge's state of the Union message has been quoted by several writers and great people over and over. Why? Well, it has become famous not because of its truthfulness and accuracy, BUT because it was delivered only a few months before the CRASH of the New York Stock Market in 1919 and the Great Depression. "Coolidge like so many people of his day, could not see what was to come in just a matter of WEEKS. His optimism reminds all of us of the man who looked out over such an abundant harvest and, while taking no thought of what the future might hold, began planning to pull down his barns so he could build bigger ones. He was literally a good planner but listen to what the Lord said to him: " Fool, this night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be? So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not RICH TOWARD GOD."
