Are We Counterfeit Christians? Neal Pollard

My Lord said, "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon" (Matthew 6:24).

You can "talk the talk," but "can you walk the walk" one may ask. Lots of people claim to be Christians but more often is the case that folks are practicing counterfeit Christianity.

Again, calling on the words of Jesus, we learn that "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?" (Matthew 7:22). A testimony to the fact that the religious are often more talk than action, Jesus says that some people call on my name but their actions don't match their words.

So, what about you and me? Are we Christians or counterfeit Christians? Here's a test:

Do you give every Lord's Day, but only what's leftover from the weekend before?

Do you pray, but only when in need of something?

Do you worship on Sunday, but only if it doesn't interfere with your work or play schedules?

Do you profess love for God, but fail to show love for His people?

Do you render good for evil, or is vengeance your goal?

Do you sing "to the work, to the work" on Sunday, but on Monday never say a word for Jesus?

Do you attend every Bible class, and worship service faithfully but have a rotten attitude during the week?

Do you talk about what the church needs to be doing, but you never engage your own heart and life in her service?

If these points have crept into your life, then perhaps you're more of a counterfeit Christian than a New Testament Christian.

Why not make it a point this week to just be a Christian. It won't be easy, but living for Jesus makes life worth the living.

Notes from Zimbabwe
Missionary, Velaphi Mlangeni

Dear Supporters,

...Velaphi writes in his report about the passing of our late brother Ray Cox earlier this month. Ray Cox was a great servant of God with a lot of vision, patience and a great zeal for the Lord's work here on this earth. Because of him, many people have learned the truth and obeyed it. Our hope is to carry on the work that brother Cox helped to start many years ago.

A number of lessons have been sent to World Bible School in Bulawayo and being used to teach people the gospel of Christ. Brother Velaphi mentions two lessons we did not know were needed in the office. They are Living a Life of Love and the junior course Becoming Friends. The expense of these lessons is the postage. One box of lessons cost about $75 to send, but they can be used to reach a great deal of people. We ask you consider sending whatever you can to help Rainbow. Make the check to Rainbow Church of Christ, 2201 Rainbow Dr, Gadsden, AL 35901. Mark on the check WBS Zimbabwe. Thank you all for the great support you have given and we ask for your continued prayers. In Christ Service, Milton McArthur Rainbow Church of Christ
