NEW POSITIONS ANNOUNCED

The elders made an announcement on Sunday concerning some new appointments and new assignments concerning leadership in our congregation. Please read about these on page 2 in the Elder's section!

BIBLE CAMP

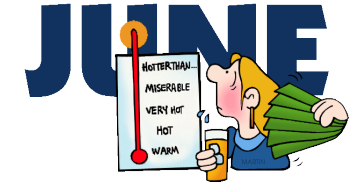

That time of year has arrived! Beginning today, many of our young people and adults will be coming and going from Rolling Hills Bible Camp in Mt Sterling, KY. This week, the high school group will be there along with Tim Dooley. Please pray for all of them while they are travelling and away from us.

Sunday Night Socials

This evening following services, we will begin our summer-time tradition of Sunday Night Socials. The theme for this evening is BASEBALL. The congregation will provide hot dogs, burgers, brats and mets. Please bring side dishes to go with this theme.

Righteous Indignation by Ben Giselbach

I am disappointed in the condescending and often derogatory comments by many of my peers: “We shouldn’t be upset about the legalization of gay marriage;” “Those in gay marriages are as lost as those in heterosexual marriages;” “We shouldn’t be trying to save America;” “Quit judging the world and start judging those in the church.”

1. Fact: The legalization of gay “marriage” makes it easier for people to sin. And the more sin people sink themselves into, the more complicated repentance is going to be for them – and the more baggage they will have from sin – when they obey the gospel. I’m angered by that.
2. Yes, practicing homosexuals are just as eternally lost as practicing heterosexual non-Christians. But Paul uses the acceptance of homosexuality as a barometer for how far mankind has distanced himself from God (Rom. 1:18-32). Sinners are just as lost as any other sinner, but American society symbolically became more distant from God than ever before. I’m angered by that.
3. When did it become wrong to mourn the wickedness that has manifested itself in American culture? And why label this as “trying to save America”? We know the church must save individuals, but individuals comprise America. A majority of Americans embrace homosexuality. I’m angered by that.
4. There are SIGNIFICANT legal ramifications that Christians are going to face because of the legalization of gay “marriage.” In the future, I can see the ‘Christian’ colleges I love so much being faced with lawsuits over student/married housing. In the future, I can see scores of gospel preachers being fined thousands of dollars because they politely declined to perform a same-sex marriage ceremony. In the future, I can see entire churches losing their tax-exempt status simply because they preached an exegetical sermon on Romans 1 or 1 Corinthians 6. I’m angered by that.
5. What’s ironic about the “quit judging the world and start judging those in the church” crowd is that they often do not even practice this. They are inconsistent. They cite 1 Corinthians 5 as a reason why we should not be disappointed in the direction the world is going (but are also quick to condemn those who are disappointed in unfaithful brethren). Yes, our sinful world acts like a sinful world and we should expect no less from the world. But are we not allowed to be upset by how broken our world is? Are we not allowed to be concerned about the direction of our society? Are we not allowed to observe how much our world needs Jesus? I’m angered by that.

Please, just let Christians feel righteous anger without giving them a guilt trip. There is a time to correct imbalance, but the emotions themselves are the very emotions our Lord feels when sin advances.

FROM THE ELDERS

We are excited to announce that Jason Carter has agreed to become associate minister for the Point Pleasant church of Christ. Jason will be assisting Tim Dooley in preaching and teaching. He will also be working with our youth.

Today we are pleased to appoint a new Deacon. Gerry Leas will begin working as director of Children’s Education. He will also take over coordination of Fellowship.

Today we also announce the appointment of Buddy Baker to head up our youth program. Buddy will be assisted by Jason Carter.

We thank each of these men for their desire to serve this congregation in these various capacities. Please keep them in your prayers and support them in any way you can.

Please see the elders if you have any questions.

POINT THE WAY YOUTH GROUP

Am so happy to inform you that now Ntabazinduna congregation has water which is a very scarce commodity in this part of the land. The borehole company just drilled for 40 meters down and lots of water gushed out and Christians there were very excited indeed. Brother Dube who is a local preacher there is a good gardener and with this much water, he and others will be able to survive through cultivating vegetables throughout the year while spreading the Gospel. Hurray!!!! Many thanks to Concord, Rainbow, Partners in Africa and other brothers and sisters who are working in conjunction with brother Dorian Flynn in drilling wells in this dry Matebeleland region.

In His service,
Velaphi
