Family News and Notes

Good Morning! We are so happy that you chose to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

Rolling Hills Bible Camp

It sounds as though the high school group had a wonderful time last week! Today, we send our 7th and 8th graders to camp along with a few brave volunteers. We pray they have a fun and safe time (with slightly cooler temperatures)!

Thank You

Frank Criss would like to express his thanks to everyone for the encouragement he received during his illness, especially the prayers on his behalf. We are so glad that Frank has been feeling better and has been able to worship with us again!

“If God Be For Us, Who Can Be Against Us?”

Vacating the Premises by Tim Dooley

Vacations are important times in all of our lives. They allow us to get away from the daily grind of our busy lives and spend some much needed time in rest, relaxation, and recreation. Whether it is time spent with family, enjoying some new adventure or activity, or just staying home and recuperating from life's toil and tear; it is an absolute necessity. Even Jesus took time off to rest and reenergize.

That being said, a vacation from the weekly wrangling of life doesn't justify a vacation from daily Christian service and devotion. Many clock out of work to leave for vacation and also vacate the household of Christ. After a long winter and spring in which I completed five full-time college classes in addition to all the other responsibilities I have, and a week at camp with fifty-eight teenagers, I need to get away. However, I want to share with you some of the things in which I will not be taking a vacation from:

I will not be taking a vacation from daily Bible study. I will be spending time each day searching the scriptures (Acts 17:11). I will be studying the Word of the Lord in order to better understand His will for me in my life.

I will not be taking a vacation from daily prayer. Jesus spent most all of His restful time in prayer with the Father. Daniel and David made it a habit (Daniel 6:10; Psalm 55:17). I need to remember that praying without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:17) includes while I am on vacation.

I will not be taking a vacation from assembling with the saints. I want to worship God and deem it a great privilege to do so. I will be in Bible Study and worship with fellow Christians Sunday and Wednesday because I need to be with my spiritual family for edification through fellowship.

I will not be taking a vacation from creating opportunities to share the gospel of Christ with others. As Christians we are to be seeking to share the gospel with all that will listen, both with our words and our actions (Matthew 28:19; 1 Timothy 4:16).

I will not be taking a vacation from encouraging others (1 Thessalonians 5:11, 14).

I will not be taking a vacation from helping someone in need (Galatians 6:10).

I will not be taking a vacation from the physical, mental, and spiritual responsibility I have toward my family.

In short, I will not be taking a vacation from loving my God. I will put Him first in my life every day (Matthew 6:33). I will not be vacating the premises of the household of Christ.

I will miss my Point Pleasant family. But I am eager to "go back in time" as I research some of my family's heritage. More on that when I return. Thank you all for your love and support!

Be faithful! [Tim]

Notes from Zimbabwe
Missionary, Velaphi Mlangeni

“Three men were baptized at Mtshabezi river namely: Mbuso Moyo (35), Pusha Magutshwa (66) and Harvey Dube (68). We praise the Lord. All recipients of the recently provided food were extremely happy and they said " Siyabonga kakhulu" meaning thank you very much. The life which the people lead in the rural areas is a hard one. They cannot afford the basics because many do not have any sources of income since they survive on subsistence farming. The rains failed them, thus the current drought.“ From Velaphi’s latest update.

Please email Velaphi with your notes of encouragement. He truly appreciates hearing from us regularly.
