Family News and Notes

We are glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

Gospel Responses

We rejoice with the angels in heaven that Ted Johnson made the decision to put on Christ in baptism to make his calling and election sure.

Also, Mark Cruickshank responded to the Gospel message, requesting forgiveness and for prayers to be a better Christian.

Bridal Shower

A Bridal Shower is being planned for Olivia McMillan for Sunday, July 26 at 7:30 pm in the barn. Please sign up (including children and/or anyone who does not attend Point Pleasant) on the sheet in the foyer. DEADLINE FOR SIGNUP is this Wednesday, July 15. Please see Susan Crowder for details. Olivia is registered at Target & Walmart.

BIBLE CAMP

This week, 5th-6th graders will attend Rolling Hills Bible Camp with Heather Glass, Jennifer Leas, Hannah Leas & Samantha McMillan as counselors. Please pray for all of them while they are away from us.

Thank you to Buddy Baker (and, of course, to God) for safely getting our Horizons attendees to Henderson, TN and home. Buddy made 2 trips by himself to do this!

YOU'LL ONLY HURT YOURSELF

The prophet Jeremiah, in warning the Southern Kingdom of Judah of the impending wrath of God, told the people that the evil that Israel and Judah had done in provoking the Lord to wrath they had “done against themselves” (Jeremiah 11:17). When we consider the various stories of sin and judgment throughout the Bible we can only conclude that those upon whom the wrath of God fell got exactly what they deserved. Adam and Eve, Cain, the men of Sodom and Gomorrah, Pharaoh, Israel and Judah, they all acted in such a way that only hurt themselves.

The natures of mankind and God have not changed and it is important for you and I to never forget that sin only hurts us and never benefits us. And while we all sin and continue to fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23) we need to remember that God has provided a way in which we can be saved from ourselves (Titus 2:11–12). And there is an intimate relationship between the grace of God, faith, and works (James 2:26). We respond to Lord and His sacrifice by what we do versus what we did. This is brought about by the act of repentance and is the difference between the old man/life and the new man/life.

So when we stand before God in the Day of Judgment we will not do so to stand trial for we are living the trial now. Once we die, or if they Lord returns first, the judgment of guilt or exoneration will be sealed. So what happens at that Last Day?

The first consideration is the fact of separation: While here on earth the saved and the lost are mingled together (Matthew 13:30, 47–49). Physical death only separates us temporarily, but when Jesus returns all will be raised and a complete and final separation will take place (Matthew 25:31–46).

The second concern is that of proclamation. Judgment Day is about sentencing. Punishment or reward will be passed upon every person. When we die and enter the intermediate state it is primarily a private matter. But on that day Jesus will publicly proclaim, “come” or “depart,” and everyone will here and know. You may fool others while you are alive and they may continue to be deceived after your death. But you are only fooling and hurting yourself.

While these two purposes are certain, they would not necessarily be essential. So there must be a deeper meaning to the judgment of mankind. The third, final, and most important intent is that of vindication. Not our vindication, but God’s. The final judgment will demonstrate the righteousness and impartiality of God and no one will be able to honestly say, “That’s not fair!” They may beg, plead, and cry, but God is just and righteous. Everyone will be “without excuse” (Romans 1:20; 2:1), they will “have their mouths closed” (Romans 3:19), and everyone will glorify God!

You can live in disobedience and rebellion but you are only hurting yourself. The wise man hears and obeys (Matthew 7:24–25) and lives to hear God say, “Well done, good and faithful servant” (Matthew 25:23).

Message from Velaphi Melangani

POINT THE WAY YOUTH GROUP

He was a man of few words but made them count. "Preach the Word" was a very familiar slogan of our late brother Loy Mitchell who spent 42 years preaching in Zimbabwe. His passing on has left a yawning gap in the Lord's vineyard in this country. Loy loved the people of Zimbabwe so much that he ended up grasping and preaching in one of the local languages without an interpreter. His sermons were always full of illustrations which made it easier for people to understand God's Word. Even if Loy was laid to rest in Texas but we know that his heart will always be in Zimbabwe as he will be well remembered for a long time to come by thousands of Christians in Africa and Zimbabwe In particular . May this gallant Christian receive his eternal reward on that Great Day!
