Scripture for Today

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because thou has rejected knowledge, I will reject thee that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. Hosea 4:6

I'm Not Surprised! by Tim Dooley

What a great weekend! Colleen and I left Friday morning to head to Alabama for the wedding of two faithful Christians. Both come from strong Christian families. Both fathers are faithful gospel preachers. The service was one of the most honest, warm, heartfelt weddings I have ever been blessed to witness. The fathers of both the bride and the groom shared in the officiating.

The father of the groom began...stressing the love that they felt for their new daughter-in-law. And stressed to her family their own commitment to love her as their own daughter. He spoke to his son...sharing how "from the changing table to the dinner table" they had talked to him and prepared him for this day. His mother and father were proud of the man he had become.

When the father of the bride took over the ceremony, few were able to chock back their tears from the beautiful words he shared. He talked of how he and her mother had written letters to her before she was even born and then read excerpts from them...the first time they had done so in more than 20 years. He spoke of the many prayers that had been uttered for the boy she would one day marry, as well as his parents. The kind of faithful Christian she would choose to share her life and her heart with. The kind of young faithful women she would become. To each and every event and characteristic he mentioned he concluded simply, "I'm not surprised."

God has a beautiful plan laid out in His Word! And He greatly blesses all how faithfully obey and follow that plan. So when He works in our lives to bring His will for us to fruition there is certainly no reason for us to be surprised.

If Hannah and Benjamin love each other forever, are faithful to each other and to God...If they serve the church with great zeal and lead many to Christ...If they go to heaven and receive a crown and a home with Him...I won't be surprised!

I said it was a great weekend. Not only because of the love and friendship we witnessed at the coming together of these two great families. We also rejoiced in the fact that two of our own children from Point Pleasant received awards this past week at the Rolling Hills Bible Camp. David Dooley received the award for Star Camper and Maddy Turner was awarded Star Girl's Bible Student. We came home to a wonderful fellowship Saturday night here at the building with food and homemade ice cream. A big thank you to Buddy and Leah Baker for organizing this, and to all those who help with food, preparation, and clean up.

If the church here continues to grow and bring others to Christ...I won't be surprised!
Be faithful. [Tim]
