Family News and Notes

We are glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

BIBLE CAMP

Last week at Rolling Hills Bible Camp, Whitney Bailey and Derek Carter both received Bible Student of the Week awards and Kayla Leas received the Star Camper award. We are proud of them!

 This week, 3rd-4th graders will attend Rolling Hills Bible Camp with Andy and Valerie Bailey, Gerry and Allyson Leas, and Ava Hutson as counselors. Please pray for all of them while they are away from us.

Things to Know/Remember

* Olivia McMillan's bridal shower is scheduled for next Sunday evening following evening services. She is registered at Walmart and Target. See Susan Crowder for details.

ACCORDING TO THE NEED OF THE MOMENT by Donnie Bates

The apostle Paul wrote of the importance of encouragement in our speech. In Colossians 4:6 he said, "Let your speech always be with grace, as though seasoned with salt, so that you will know how you should respond to each person." This is not an admonition to use "salty speech" (i.e. profanity) as some among us are want to do. Salt, as it is used here, would have the same meaning as it does in Matthew 5:13 where Jesus tells us that His disciples are the "salt of the earth." In other words, it is good for the earth that Christians are a part of it. Our speech should reflect that fact. It should be good for others to be in our company and hear our speech. In Ephesians 4:29 Paul commanded that no "unwholesome" word be spoken by us. That means that nothing "unwholesome," or "corrupt," or "filthy" should come out of our mouths. Obviously, this would apply to profanity. However, profane words are not the only corrupt, filthy and unwholesome communication we can use. Words that bite are filthy. Words that criticize (not constructive and positive criticism, but negative and destructive criticism) and words that teach others to criticize, are unwholesome and corrupt speech and should be purged from our minds and mouths. It breaks my heart to hear adults criticize something in someone else and reason that the offending person has impure motives and just wanted to offend, as though it was done "just to make me mad!" And when adults offer this kind of criticism in the presence of their children or grandchildren, another generation learns to do the same. That is why Paul said, "Do not let it come out of your mouth!"

The positive alternative is in the same verse (Ephesians 4:29). Rather than filthy communication, use speech that is good for edification. That means language that builds others up rather than tears them down. We said earlier that being salt means that it is good for the world that we are here. Seasoning our speech with salt that builds means that it is good for those around us to hear what we are saying. Spreading the Gospel message of the saving grace of Jesus Christ is certainly included, but a simple "Thank you" is just as salty! Try it sometime (no, all the time).

The next time you are sitting in traffic in the left turn lane and there is a little old lady in the car in front of you and the green arrow comes on and she doesn't see it and just sits there, try something new. Instead of imagining that she is just callous and rude and doesn't care that if you don't get to McDonald's at precisely 10:30 they won't have any sausage biscuits left and you blow a gasket between your ears in frustration, try imagining that she has a lot on her mind and needs your patience; or the next time you have the opportunity to speak to someone who has been rude to you or has given you an opportunity to speak evil or good, weigh the need of the moment and then speak something that edifies and not something that hurts. What you will find is that the healing and the edification happen to you as much and maybe more than to the one you have blessed with your salty speech.

"Jonah Nyati is another soldier of Christ who passed on in June. Jonah was Stella's father and was the firstborn son of Kananda Nyati. Kananda accompanied early missionaries who came to Zimbabwe in the late 1800 preaching the Gospel from Tuli up to Wuyuwuyu in Mashonaland. His first wife passed on in the late 1950s while preaching in rural areas. Stella was still very young when her mother passed away but she remembers her as a very hospitable person as many Christians from rural areas visited her home now and again.

Jonah was pivotal in planting many congregations in Matebeleland. The first congregation in Bulawayo started meeting in his house in Njube suburb before spreading to other areas. He succumbed to prostate cancer. May the Lord grant him his eternal reward when He appears."
