Why Did Jesus Have to Die?

"For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:6-8

Why? by Tim Dooley

One simple three-letter word but not so simple a question. The inquisitive child drives her mother half mad repeating it. The teenage boy frustrates his father when asked because he wishes to avoid something he's been told to do. The question is noble though if asked with a true desire to understand.

Nothing may be more crucial to our eternal salvation that an honest inquiry into the reasons behind the events leading up to and including the death of Jesus. Why was Jesus in such agony in the garden? Why was Jesus betrayed? Why did the people ask for Barabbas? Why was Jesus beaten and his garments parted? Why was he crucified? Why did his Father forsake him?

Even Pilate wanted to know, "Why, what evil has he done?"

There are several pertinent answers to these questions. 1) To fulfill the prophecies of old (Matthew 27:9, 35). Jesus did not come to destroy the law, but to fulfill it (Matthew 5:17); 2) To do the will of the Father (Matthew 26:39). Jesus was delivered up "by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God" (Galatians 4:4; Acts 2:23); 3) And to save us from our sins (John 3:16; Romans 5:8).

Why should you obey him and serve him faithfully? Because of the hope of heaven and salvation from eternal destruction. [Tim]
