WHAT A MESS WE'VE MADE by Tim Dooley

In 2 Kings 6-10 we find that Israel has gone from a powerful, united, and blessed nation to a divided, warring, cursed people. God had fulfilled His promises to Abraham, but the children of Israel did not keep their part of the covenant to be faithful and obedient to God. The horrors of this text are a direct result of God's warnings to His people for their unfaithfulness. God is not the author of confusion, but of peace (1 Cor 14:33).

The direct spiritual application here for us is strikingly similar. God has fulfilled His part of the covenant to give us a promised land made possible through the sacrifice of His Son. The turmoil and horrors we see in our own individual lives, as well as in the Lord's church, are a direct result of our disobedience and unfaithfulness. But the army of the Lord stands ready to avenge and cleanse if we will repent and serve Him faithfully. You can clean up the mess if you want to! Obey and be faithful.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Dear Brothers Craig and Steve

Two congregations have done it. Stanhope congregation has finished building its baptistery and baptized seven souls. Praise the Lord! Brother Khulekani Dube, Gedion's son was the first to baptize. Christians at Stanhope are just ecstatic. They are extremely grateful indeed brother Steve because they will no longer travel for long distances to dig for water in the Gwayi riverbed. Stay blessed my brothers! Mission accomplished!

We are now going to Ntabazinduna. We understand that they too have finished building theirs. We will send pictures later.

Attached pictures show people being baptized and many who witnessed the baptisms. In His service, Velaphi
