FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you are able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Several families are away this weekend, moving the college students into the dorms at Freed Hardeman. Please pray for a safe, successful and spiritually uplifting year for all of our college students. We will be starting up our "college student of the month" activity in September. Please be watching for information on our first student of the month in September!
- Please mark your calendars for the annual Labor Day breakfast at the Leas' home. This is a potluck type meal. Please bring your favorite breakfast/brunch food to share! EVERYONE is invited! Questions? See Jennifer or Gerry.
- The Elders, Deacons, Preachers 2018 Planning Meeting will be Friday Oct 27-Sat Oct 28
- Prayer list needs updates! Please review the entire list and give any updates to Jennifer Leas.

Peace Through Christ by Jason T Carter

Jesus was prophesied as the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6), and when the angels announced His arrival, the heavenly host proclaimed, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!" (Luke 2:14 [ESV]).

Jesus healed a woman in Mark 5:24-34, telling her, "Go in peace." Likewise, at the Pharisee's house, He told the woman who washed His feet with her tears, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace" (Luke 7:36-50). With whom did these women now have peace? What is the connection between faith and peace?

Paul explains in Ephesians 2:11-16 that Christ, in His selfless act upon the cross, reconciled the faithful body to God, "putting to death the enemy."

We have peace with God, but that does not mean we will be free of tribulation. The Lord told His apostles prior to His arrest and crucifixion, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). We, too, can have peace in Christ, regardless of what is happening around us. We need to keep our eyes on our ultimate goal: eternal life with God when this life is over.

Meanwhile, we should be working to bring those around us into a peaceful relationship with the Almighty through evangelistic efforts.

James Burton Coffman wrote, "There are several ways in which God's children can serve as peacemakers: (1) Through spiritual instruction, they can bring peace to hearts that are troubled. (2) They can bring peace to their fellow men who are at strife between or among themselves. (3) They can bring men, through preaching God's word, or teaching it, to become reconciled to God, which is the greatest of all the achievements of the peacemaker. Definite procedures for the peacemakers are laid down in the Bible. A peacemaker conceals the transgression of others (see Proverbs 11:13); seeks a personal interview (Galatians 6:1); and tries to save 'the face' of the wrongdoer (2 Timothy 2:22-26). Such shall be called the sons of God because they are most like God in his efforts to reconcile man unto himself."

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

JULY 2017 UPDATE, PART 2

Sad

It is so sad to note that the mortality rate in Zimbabwe continues to rise unabated. In July, we laid to rest eight people. We spent most of our time comforting the bereaved and preaching at funerals. Funerals here call for big gatherings thus much time is spent in preparing for a funeral. Nevertheless, we had ample opportunity even during these hard times of sadness of pointing people to Christ who promised us eternal life. "I am the resurrection and the life". John 11:25.

Fellowship

We had fellowship Sundays at Nkulumane and Macingwane respectively. Fellowship Sundays are days when local congregations worship together and encourage each other to be strong and faithful. These are times when we also reach out to the lost with the gospel truth.

Gospel Meeting

We had our annual Gospel Meeting at Stanmore in Matebeleland South towards the end of July. The theme of this Gospel Meeting was: The Mission of the Church. Matthew 28:18-20. We encouraged each other to work even harder in teaching the Gospel truth to many people. This Gospel meeting was attended by almost three hundred people. My topic was: Orderly Worship I Cor 14:40.

Thank you

We thank you our brothers and sisters in Christ in Canada and the United States for your great financial support which enables us to continue spreading the Gospel truth in Zimbabwe. We would not do much without this support. We therefore thank you very much and may our good Lord continue to bless your loving hearts for His work.

In His service
Velaphi
