“So thou shalt put the evil away from among you” Deut. 17:7

On several occasions in the book of Deuteronomy the Children of Israel are reminded to remove sin from the camp in order to keep the camp pure. A simple request but apparently not so simple in application. Time and time again the children of Israel allowed sin to go unchecked in the camp and the result was always disastrous (Joshua 7). But God is faithful and forgiving, so, whenever the sin was dealt with (this meant removal, repentance, and the righteous suffering of consequences), God blessed them.

Much of our discord today (be it in the home, society, or even the church) is a direct result of not following this Old Testament example and the subsequent New Testament commands to do the same. When writing to the church at Corinth concerning the immorality that was being allowed to continue in the congregation Paul commanded, "Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person" (1 Corinthians 5:13). When writing to Titus he commanded by inspiration that the church was to, "Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition" (Titus 3:10).

In order for the home to be truly blessed it must be cleansed of sin. This means adulterous marriages must be severed (Matthew 19:9; Hebrews 13:4), homosexual relationships must be repented of (1 Corinthians 6:9–10), all forms of worldliness and immorality must be eradicated (Titus 2:12).

In order for our society to once again become a godly nation and reap the blessings of the Father we need to turn from our immoral ways (Jeremiah 18:8), cleanse ourselves as a people, stand for the truth (1 Corinthians 16:13), and bring into office leaders who will stand for biblical principles. We need to be praying for these every day (1 Timothy 2:1–2)!

In order to remain pure and holy as the people of God, the church of Jesus Christ, the unrepentant sinner must be removed from our fellowship and we cannot let our personal feelings stand between us and God in doing His will (Matthew 10:37). We need to remember that, "A little leaven leavens the whole lump" (1 Corinthians 5:6; Galatians 5:9). And we as Christians need to strive to keep ourselves pure, without spot or blemish (2 Peter 3:14). The ultimate responsibility for keeping the church pure lies with each of us individually. If you are not a baptized Christian, obey him by believing (John 6:29), repenting (Acts 26:20), confessing (Matthew 10:32–33), and being baptized for the remission of your sins (Acts 2:38). And if you are a Christian...Be faithful!
[Tim]

Message from Velaphi Melangani

We are happy to report that during the month in review, 113 church leaders attended the Preachers annual Workshop at the World Bible School Office in Bulawayo from 10-11 July 2015. We had local speakers and others from the United States which included Andrew Thompson, Bob Williams, Alan Fonville and Stan Riggs. They were being accompanied by Dorian and Cheri Flynn. The subjects covered include: How to be fishers of men, Sermon Preparation, Youth Ministry and Leadership qualities just to mention a few. We firmly believe that if these leaders are properly taught, this will result in stronger congregations and they will not be easily swayed by the influx of false teachings so prevalent in Zimbabwe.

We thank the Lord for the eight baptisms during the month in review. Two of those baptized were members of one family and we had studied with this family since last year. Glory be to God! In His service, Velaphi
