

FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

FALL SEMINAR

We have been blessed to share this weekend with Dr Bill Bagents, Vice President for Academic Affairs at Heritage Christian University. He has been speaking to us on the subject of "Grief and Loss." We thank Bill and his wife, Laura, for being with us and for sharing their experiences with grief and loss. It has been encouraging and uplifting to participate in each session.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY DAY 9/25

Friends and Family Day is coming up quickly! It is scheduled for September 25. We will NOT be sending out invitations from the congregation this year. So, please be sure to invite your friends and family members to join us that afternoon at 4:00 pm for a meal and for evening services to follow at 6:00 pm.

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- The Youth Group is preparing Care Packages for our College Students. Suggestion lists for each student are on the board. Please bring items by Wednesday, September 14.
- Thank you to all who came, brought food and fellowshiped with us at the Labor Day Breakfast. From the elders: "Thank you Gerry, Jennifer and girls for hosting Labor Day Breakfast. The food, fellowship and encouragement were great. The elders" during evening service. We are currently at $431,000, which is 86% of the goal. Work with a contractor has already begun.

Practical Christianity by Tim Dooley

Is there anything more frustrating in conversation than someone who can't seem to get to the point? I have listened to some preachers who preach an entire lesson and leave you wondering "What's the point?". In fact, in everyday conversation I like someone to say what they mean, get to the point, and be understandable. One thing rings true from the book of James...he doesn't mince words; he is clear, concise, and practical.

We as individual Christians, and the church as a whole, would be in far better spiritual health if we started living the biblically inspired principles therein. 1) Friendship with the world puts you at odds with God. 2) God opposes the proud but gives grace and lifts up the humble. 3) Draw near to God, cleanse your hands, purify your hearts, and God will draw near to you. 4) Understand that life is short and should be lived in view of the eternity beyond this life and those things that are pleasing to God. 5) Knowing good and not doing it is sin. 6) Be patient. 7) Keep your word! 8) Pray and sing. 9) Confess your faults to one another. 10) Save yourself and others.

It's not that we can't know what to do or that we can't do what is pleasing to God. The problem is often our "teachability" and our willingness to do God's will. Are you teachable? Listen, it's not that we can't know, it's are we humble enough to submit to the teaching of God and then do it. We have much to do and the forest at times seems overwhelming. But God gave us His Son, He gave us His word, and He has given us the church. One step at a time friends, keeping God and eternity in focus. Be faithful! [Tim]
