FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

GOSPEL RESPONSE

Maria Carter came forward requesting prayers as she continues to struggle with emotional issues in her life. We are proud of Maria for her courage to open up and ask for prayers. We love her and are grateful for the opportunity to serve her in this way.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY DAY NEXT WEEK!

Friends and Family Day is next Sunday, September 25. We are NOT sending out invitations from the congregation this year. Please be sure to personally invite your friends and family members to join us for a meal to begin at 4:30 and for evening services to follow at 6:00 pm. There is a signup sheet posted on the bulletin board for food. If you have a dining tent/canopy that we can use, please let Gerry Leas know. We will need several of them.

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Thank you to the Glass family for hosting the congregation last Sunday evening at their new Domino's store in Richwood. Great food and fellowship!
- The congregation will be mailing out the House to House publication to area homes prior to the election this fall. Please pray for the success of this effort.
- The elders, deacons, preacher's annual planning meeting will be held on 11/11-11/12 at General Butler State Park. Please see Buddy if you are planning to spend the night.

during evening service. We are currently at $431,000, which is 86% of the goal. Work with a contractor has already begun.

Saving Faith by Jason T Carter

There can be no denying that faith is essential in God's plan of salvation. Jesus says, "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned" (Mark 16:16). Paul writes, "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Romans 10:17).

The Hebrews writer identifies the marks of the faith that saves in Hebrews 11:6: "But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

Before anything else, we must believe that God exists. This is the very foundation of saving faith. We can be certain of His existence through the evidence of His creation (Psalm 19:1; Romans 1:20; Hebrews 11:3), as well as through His Word (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

Second, we must believe that God is a rewarder

(Hebrews 10:35-39). Peter calls it "an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you" (1 Peter 1:4), and that the "end of your faith" is "the salvation of your souls" (1 Peter 3:9).

Who does God reward? The Hebrews writer says that "He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." God desires men to seek Him and find Him (Acts 10:26-27). The Savior said that we are to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:33).

The logical result of these things—believing in the existence of God, believing in a rewarding God, and seeking Him—is obedience. If we truly believe what He has revealed, we will submit to Him. We will not try to make excuses or find loopholes, but quickly do what is necessary to please Him. We can avoid struggling with submission and obedience by spending more time in His Word, further developing and strengthening our faith.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Today 25 men attended a Leadership Workshop held at the new World Bible School Office in Bulawayo. Our main discussion focused on II Tim 2:2. We are convinced that the church needs strong spiritual leadership for it to grow. See attached pictures. Last Saturday 61 youths gathered at Hillside dams. I delivered a lesson on the role of the youth in the church. It was good to see them participating in this discussion which shows that the church has a future in Zimbabwe. Please continue to pray for the growth of the Lord's Church in Zimbabwe.

In His service, Velaphi
