FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

GOSPEL RESPONSE

Scott and Joann Bond came forward on Wednesday evening requesting prayers as Scott found out this week that the business he works for has closed their doors permanently. Please pray for him in his job search!

FRIENDS AND FAMILY DAY

We would like to extend a warm welcome to all of the Friends and Family that are joining us for services today. We are so glad that you could join us! We invite everyone to come back and join us for a fellowship meal this afternoon at 4:30 pm (setup is at 4:00 pm). Evening services will follow the meal at 6:00 pm. Please be sure to come back this evening and bring your friends and neighbors to join us for this exciting annual event!

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Thank you to the Myers family for hosting the teen devotional at their home on Friday evening.
- The congregation will be mailing out the House to House publication to area homes prior to the election this fall. Please pray for the success of this effort.
- The elders, deacons, preacher's annual planning meeting will be held on 11/11-11/12 at General Butler State Park. Please see Buddy if you are planning to spend the night.
- Please see John Glass if you are interested in attending Miami University football or basketball games or NKU basketball games. He has offered to share his season tickets with those who have an interest in attending.

Peter, Cornelius, and Antioch by Tim Dooley

One of the great things about the Bible is the great life lessons that are wrapped up in the shroud of faith. Peter, for all his faults, was a great man of faithfulness. When confronted in a vision to arise, kill, and eat of the "unclean" animals he saw before him he refused, saying, "I have never eaten any things that is common or unclean" (10:14). Cornelius was a "devout man that feared God...gave alms...and prayed...a just man" (10:2, 22). The church at Antioch, which is a great example of what the church today ought to be, were benevolent to the Christians in Judaea.

In our daily lives, as we strive to serve God and others, we need to pay attention to the works of faith in which we should be involved. Are we impartial in our dealings with others? Are we loving toward God and our fellow man (even our enemies)? Are we faithful? Are we engaged in works of righteousness in order to bring glory and honor to God? Or are well self-serving, self-seeking, self-ish? Are we a product of societal influence or are we bearing the image of Jesus?

When we do those things that are pleasing to God, God blesses us. Ask Peter (12:5-19). When don't, bad things happen. Ask Herod (12:20-23). Be obedient to the Lord. Eternity hangs in the balance and matters. Do something good today and every day in order to bring glory and honor to God. And above all, be faithful! [Tim]

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Today 25 men attended a Leadership Workshop held at the new World Bible School Office in Bulawayo. Our main discussion focused on II Tim 2:2. We are convinced that the church needs strong spiritual leadership for it to grow. See attached pictures. Last Saturday 61 youths gathered at Hillside dams. I delivered a lesson on the role of the youth in the church. It was good to see them participating in this discussion which shows that the church has a future in Zimbabwe. Please continue to pray for the growth of the Lord's Church in Zimbabwe.

In His service, Velaphi
