FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you were able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

GOSPEL RESPONSE

We rejoice with the angels in heaven that there were four Gospel responses last Sunday. On Sunday morning, Sharon Fugate, Evelyn Tolliver, and Dennis Tolliver came forward. Sharon requested prayers to she would be a better Christian. Evelyn confessed sin in her life and asked forgiveness from God and her husband. She also requested prayers of the church so that she can be more Christ-like. Dennis announced that he needs to step down as a deacon in order to take care of family matters. On Sunday evening, David Dooley came forward repenting of sin and asking forgiveness. We commend all of these precious souls and want to continue praying for them and their strength as they continue their walks with God.

WELCOME

It was announced last week that Wayne and Patti Hacker have made the decision to place their membership with the Point Pleasant congregation. We welcome them and are glad to have them working and "doing life" with us. We are glad you're here, Wayne and Patti!

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Thank you to everyone for your efforts with Friends and Family Day last week.
- Note from the Bonds: "We would like to thank everyone who showed up to help us move. Your support and help is greatly appreciated. Love, Stephen, Miranda, and Erin Bond."
- The congregation will be mailing out the House to House publication to area homes prior to the election this fall. Please pray for the success of this effort.
- The elders, deacons and preachers have a 2017 planning meeting scheduled at General Butler State Park on 11/11-12.

Come Lord Jesus by Tim Dooley

Those who take part in the first resurrection, which is the resurrection that takes place at baptism (Romans 6:3-6) the second death (i.e. the eternal death that takes place following the Judgment) has no power. Yet those who do not take part in the first resurrection, nor have their names found written in the "book of life," will be cast into the lake of fire.

In the closing chapters of the book of Revelation the beloved Apostle John gets to see a glimpse of the church in its ultimate glory. It is represented as a beautiful bride, adorned for her husband; a great city with walls that cannot be breached and with gates that never need to be closed; and as a magnificent garden, even more utopian than the Garden of Eden. To all this John is told, "blessed is he that keeps the sayings of the prophecy of this book... that do his commands, that they might have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city" (Revelation 22:7-14).

Having seen all these things John replies, "Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus" (v. 20). If your life were to end today, if the Lord were indeed to come, if you were to stand before God in judgment, would you be ready? Are you living a life in faithful anticipation of that day? Are you so prepared as to be honestly willing to proclaim "Com, Lord Jesus?" Are you ready for Jesus to come? [Tim]

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Today 25 men attended a Leadership Workshop held at the new World Bible School Office in Bulawayo. Our main discussion focused on II Tim 2:2. We are convinced that the church needs strong spiritual leadership for it to grow. See attached pictures. Last Saturday 61 youths gathered at Hillside dams. I delivered a lesson on the role of the youth in the church. It was good to see them participating in this discussion which shows that the church has a future in Zimbabwe. Please continue to pray for the growth of the Lord's Church in Zimbabwe.

In His service, Velaphi
