Who Do You Love? (2 Timothy 3-4) by Tim Dooley

Paul's last surviving letter written just prior to his martyrdom is an impassioned plea to his beloved protégé to be faithful. Mankind can be boiled down to two different categories: Lovers of themselves and lovers of God. One has only a form of godliness while the other lives godly and endures persecution. The Scripture guides one while the other is guided by his own lusts. One spreads rumors, mischief, gossip, and lies while the other preaches the truth. One is destined to eternal destruction but to those who look forward to the appearing of Love, a crown of righteousness.

Many will claim to love the Lord but most prove by their lives that they really love themselves more so! Your true love will be evident to all, but more importantly it is evident to the Lord. So, let each of us take stock in our lives and ask, "Whom do I really love?" Be faithful. [Tim]

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

We are happy to report that this morning Jacob and I traveled for almost 200kms to distribute food to the needy Christians at Lushonkwe. We also distributed food to the old in their homes who were not able to walk to a central place to receive this food. All recipients of this food (mealie meal and cabbages) were very grateful indeed. Lushonkwe is a very dry place and along the way we saw livestock roaming the forests looking for water. Sad! Nevertheless we thank our brothers and sisters at Rainbow for putting a smile on the faces of those hungry Christians. In His service, Velaphi

We are happy to inform you that seven WBS students were baptized and added to the Lord’s body. We give all praise to the Lord. We are joyful because sometimes it takes ages before a student responds positively to the Gospel truth. Please pray for their spiritual growth.

I have attached a video of two South Africans preaching. Interesting! Lord willing, Stella and I will leave for South Africa towards the end of this month for medical check up. I am a bit weak physically though. Maybe I need some rest. Please pray for me. Our love to all our brothers and sisters. In His service, Velaphi
