THE BLOOD THAT SAVES by Tim Dooley

The rest which God offers mankind is only available through obedience to Jesus (Hebrews 4:11). This is true because it is only by the blood of Christ that we can have our sins and our consciences cleared. Our hearts are sprinkled with the blood of Jesus when we are washed in baptism. Then one must "hold fast" to the rest and salvation received through faith in Him (Hebrews 4:14; 10:23)/ Provoking others to love and good works (Hebrews 10:24). All this with a "fearful looking" (V 27) for it is a "fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (v 31).

Those who have been obedient to the new covenant of Christ should be unceasingly thankful that we live under a new and better covenant. Those who haven't should soberly and urgently consider their eternal destiny, and seek the grace of God that has been delivered to all through Christ. The blood of Christ saves if you will obey. The blood of Christ continues to save if you are faithful. So obey Him and be faithful. [Tim]

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

We are happy to report that this morning Jacob and I traveled for almost 200kms to distribute food to the needy Christians at Lushonkwe. We also distributed food to the old in their homes who were not able to walk to a central place to receive this food. All recipients of this food (mealie meal and cabbages) were very grateful indeed. Lushonkwe is a very dry place and along the way we saw livestock roaming the forests looking for water. Sad! Nevertheless we thank our brothers and sisters at Rainbow for putting a smile on the faces of those hungry Christians. In His service, Velaphi

We are happy to inform you that seven WBS students were baptized and added to the Lord's body. We give all praise to the Lord. We are joyful because sometimes it takes ages before a student responds positively to the Gospel truth. Please pray for their spiritual growth.

I have attached a video of two South Africans preaching. Interesting! Lord willing, Stella and I will leave for South Africa towards the end of this month for medical check up. I am a bit weak physically though. Maybe I need some rest. Please pray for me. Our love to all our brothers and sisters. In His service, Velaphi
