

FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you are able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Trunk or Treat has been scheduled for TONIGHT following evening services. Please do not wear costumes to worship. Children may change into costumes after services. All costumes should be appropriate for a Christian setting (nothing scary or inappropriate).
- FALL SEMINAR is NEXT WEEKEND! Please plan to attend the seminar on "Managing Your Money God's Way" with Keith Kasarjian beginning this Friday, Nov 3 and continuing through Sunday.
- Please plan to attend the Guess Who's Coming To Dinner? Event on November 11. Sign up on the bulletin board in the foyer. See Dave Harris if you have questions.
- Meal coordinators are needed for November and December. Please sign the list on the hallway bulletin board if you are able to help in this area.
- Potter's Children's Home will be here on Sunday, November 12, to collect any Gleaner Money Cans that we have filled this year. Please be sure to have them at the building by that day.

THE COST OF SERVICE by Tim Dooley

In 2 Samuel 24:24 we read that King David refused to offer unto God a sacrifice that cost him nothing. A sacrifice that doesn't cost anything is no real sacrifice at all! In fact, inherent in the definition of sacrifice is the idea of cost. Yet so many today want to give God that which is no sacrifice to them at all. We give God our leftovers, our hand-me-downs, our undesirables, and we expect God in turn to bless us with new and better things.

The author C. S. Lewis once wrote concerning giving that "the only safe rule is to give more than we can spare. In other words, if our expenditure on comforts, luxuries, amusements, etc, is up to the standard common among those with the same income as our own, we are probably giving away too little. If our charities do not at all pinch or hamper us, I should say they are too small. There ought to be things we should like to do and cannot do because our charitable expenditure excludes them."

Without controversy we know that our lives are to be living sacrifices (Romans 12:1-2). That is each day from the first fruits, the best of our hearts, our words, our thoughts, our labors. Doing all to and for the Lord (Colossians 3:23). What was the cost of Jesus' service to us and to the Father? "I lay down my life" (John 10:15). How is your giving? Be faithful!

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

SEPTEMBER PROGRESS REPORT, PART 3

Report from Jacob and Nqobizitha

Greetings from Zimbabwe!

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ hoping this report finds everyone well.

We are already in the last quarter of the year. Time is flying. We thank the Lord for His guidance even in difficult times and we would like to thank you for all the support in the Lord's work that has made it possible for us to accomplish a lot for His glory.

We had a successful and fruitful ladies Lectureship in Bayethe which was held on the first week of the month. 6 souls were added to the body and baptized.

On the following first day of the week we went back to Bayethe for a follow up after a successful ladies Lectureship we had a wonderful service there breaking the bread with our fellow Christians and the newly-added to the body.

The third first day of the week, we worshipped with the Congregation in Zhilo where we took 30 bags of Mealie meal to the needy brethren. They sent messages to say thank you very much. They don't know where they would be without the love you have shown through food relief fund. It is sincerely appreciated.

On the last week of the month we conducted a preachers and Church leaders training which included leaders from 6 of our rural Congregations. It was very fruitful. God willing, we wish to conduct those classes annually if we get funds to be able to make it possible.

Thank you very much for the support spiritually and financially that has made it possible for us to achieve all this work, we pray that the Lord will continue to strengthen our bond in all good works and everything done for His glory.
