FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you are able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

GOSPEL RESPONSES

We rejoice that two precious souls responded to the Gospel Invitation last Sunday. Larry Beckley came forward requesting forgiveness and the help of the Church family to be a better Christian. We love Larry and want to encourage him in any way that we can!

Mike Braunstein also came forward, stating that he has recently relocated from Canton, OH and is not affiliated with any church, but that he longs to be connected to a church body. Mike has been studying the Bible with Jason Carter. We appreciate Mike's desire to search for a church family and pray that he continues in the way that God would have him to go.

WELCOME, JAMES!

We want to extend a warm welcome to James Greer, who has expressed a desire to be identified as a member of the Point Pleasant congregation. Please be sure to meet James and welcome him to the family! We are glad to have you with us, James!

THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Trunk or Treat will be held TONIGHT after services. Children may change into their costumes following worship services. Please- no scary or inappropriate costumes. If the weather cooperates, we will also have a campfire and hot drinks in the barn.
- Potter Children's Home will be here next Sunday to pick up the filled Silver for Children coin banks. Please have your filled banks to the building by 11/6.
- Please pray for the success of the House to House mailing going out.
- The elders, deacons and preachers have a 2017 planning meeting scheduled at General Butler State Park on 11/11-12.

BEING PREPARED by Tim Dooley

Ezra is a wonderful story of repentance and reconciliation. We see the great power of the One true and living God of heaven as He works in the lives of His children. The journey that Ezra and the Levites undertake as they return from captivity to the city of Jerusalem and the temple is one that required much faithfulness and perseverance. They would have to overcome opposition, face dangers, and place their trust in the Lord. They would also have to make difficult decisions and take decisive actions in order to be purified and reconciled to God.

From Ezra 7:10 we learn a valuable lesson about being prepared. All that was accomplished by this great man of God and the children of Israel was only possible because first and foremost Ezra prepare his heart heart to: 1) Seek the law of the Lord; 2) To do it; and 3) To teach it. Then, and only then, could the blessings of God fully secured.

We will never reach our full potential, be as effective for the cause of Christ as we should be, and be prepared for eternity until we too, like Ezra, prepare our hearts. Only then can we be known, blessed, and faithful.

Tim

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Some few weeks ago, Sipho and I embarked on a preaching trip to Lushonkwe in Gwanda. We visited several villages preaching the Gospel Truth. In one village, we visited a home we had visited before early this year. When we were through with our preaching at this home, a lady by the name Naomi Ndlovu (54), who has been bed ridden for the past two years, obeyed the Lord and wanted to be baptized. We said to her: "how are we going to baptize you since you are bedridden". She said : "carry me with my blanket". We did just that. We carried her with a blanket to the truck, then carried her to the river and baptized her. This was so emotional and we all ended up with tears of joy! See pictures. We visited Naomi again this past weekend and she requested for a wheelchair so that she can be mobile again. We appeal to anyone who can help Naomi with a wheelchair to contact Craig King or Milton McArthur at Rainbow Church of Christ. Gadsden, Alabama.
