

I'm Looking Forward to It by Aaron Veyon

Robert had a good job, though it was very demanding. As a younger man he didn't mind the long hours away from home, but he was now nearing retirement and the stress of the job was weighing heavier with each passing day. With only a few months left to work, he said to his wife, "I've spent most of my life making a lot of money, and what has it got me? Oh, I've enjoyed it; and I've even made a big name for myself. But to be honest, honey, I'd rather have been a poor man with you than a rich man without you. So I'm really looking forward to spending the rest of my life by your side."

Paul (who was a man of high standing) said, "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:13-14). Friends, all the greatness we may achieve in this life (the wealth, the accomplishments, the accolades) cannot begin to compare to the glory of an eternity with our Lord (cf. Matt. 6:19-21). Don't focus too much on the toys of life or you'll miss out on the joys of heaven. Heaven is my goal and I'm looking FORWARD to it. How about you?

Are You Ready For Heaven? by Dan Jenkins

"I don't enjoy coming to church." How often do people use these words or others like them to express their feelings? It may be that others have not used these words, but they have felt them. Think about the implication of these words.

If I really am bored in worship, then how on earth could I enjoy being in heaven? I have little idea about what our activities will be like in eternity, but the Bible does give glimpses into some activities around the throne. In Isaiah chapter six, the prophet described what he saw in the vision. He saw the Lord sitting on a mighty throne with heavenly beings flying around the throne. "And one cried to another and said, 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!'" Heaven is a place where God is praised. Think about this. How long would it have been before you got bored being there?

John's vision of heaven is found in Revelation chapter four. He sees four living creatures around the throne. "And they do not rest day or night, saying: 'Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!'" Look carefully at what is said, "They do not rest day or night . . ." Heaven is a place of praise. How long would it have been before you got bored being there?

John then sees others sitting on thrones around God's who leave their thrones, remove their crowns and fall before that mighty throne. They ". . . cast their crowns before the throne, saying: 'You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things and by Your will they exist and were created.'" In the next chapter, John sees a host of angels—ten thousand times ten thousands and thousands of thousands—singing praises to the Lord. Heaven is a place of praise. How long would it have been before you got bored being there?

In chapter fifteen, John sees a multitude of those who were victorious over evil. "They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying, 'Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the saints!'" Someday, all the redeemed will be in their position. Lord, hasten that day! What a day of rejoicing that will be! Heaven is a place of praise.

Now, if you find other things more enjoyable and exciting than worshiping God, just how happy would you be in heaven? If worshiping God is boring, and you have a casual attitude toward attending worship, how happy would you be in heaven? Heaven is a place of praising God. How happy would you be when we've been there 10,000 years, knowing we have no fewer days to sing God's praise than when we started?

Excerpts from Velaphi's September 2014 Monthly Report:

Brothers and Sisters, The month of September 2014 was one of the busiest in terms of propagating the Gospel. We thank you wholeheartedly for your continued support which is enabling us to win many lost souls for our Lord. We thank our Lord for giving us the strength to work tirelessly in His vineyard. May He receive all the glory!

Baptisms. During the month in review, 22 souls were baptized. We praise the Lord! Seven were baptized at a Gospel Meeting in Dando in Nyamandlovu District. Nine were baptized at Alicedale, three at MacDonald and one at Kumbudzi and two at Dula 2 in Mtshabezi.

Gospel Meetings. The Gospel Meetings we held at Kumbudzi in Mtshabezi and Dando in Nyamandlovu were very successful. They were attended by over 400 villagers and 8 souls were converted and baptized. At Dando we pitched our huge tent which was filled to capacity on Sunday. At Kumbudzi, we met at Kumbudzi Primary school. Some years back we donated books to this school and created good friendship.
