FAMILY NEWS AND NOTES

We're glad that you are able to join us this morning in worship to God. Please let us know if you have questions we can answer and also let us know how we can serve you!

GOSPEL RESPONSES

We rejoice that three precious souls responded to the Gospel Invitation this past week. On Sunday, DeWight Shouse came forward requesting forgiveness from God and his church family for being unfaithful. Derek Carter also came forward on Sunday, stating that he needs the help and prayers of the church to deal with stress and pressure of high school. Allen Womacks responded on Wednesday evening, requesting prayers to be a better Christian leader for his family. He also requested prayers for his family as they were impacted by an unexpected event this week. Please lift all three of these souls in prayer and be an encouragement to them...we love them all very much!

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Gerry Leas at the sudden passing of his mother, Kate Leas, on Friday. Her funeral will be held on Monday. Gerry is already in Pittsburgh, but please pray for the rest of Leas family as they travel this week.

THINGS TO KNOW/REMEMBER

- Dave Harris has been put before the congregation as a deacon. If there are no Biblical objections, he will be installed as a deacon today
- Holiday Basket Assembly has been scheduled for December 10.

NOVEMBER 2016

3rd SUNDAY GIVING

Next scheduled special contribution for building fund is NOVEMBER 20 during evening service. We are currently at $431,000, which is 86% of the goal. Work with a contractor has begun.

THE HOPE OF THE FAITHFUL by Jason T Carter

In whom do you place your hope? During the election season, many intelligent people seem to lose their ability to reason, throwing all of their hope for tomorrow on a political candidate. Certainly, we must consider the issues before casting our vote, and we must base our choices on the promises made during the campaign, but never forget that a person—whether your preferred candidate or the other—has the ability (and often the penchant) of letting you down.

Isn't that how it is with all people though? Have you ever been disappointed by your parents? Or your siblings? Perhaps a teacher didn't follow through with a promised grade adjustment in high school, or a preacher failed to shake your hand after worship services. Your long-time friend forgot to wish you "happy birthday" on Facebook, your boss neglected to praise you for a job well done, your children ignored you when you asked them to make their beds...you get the idea. People can and people will disappoint us. They don't intend to, but they do. There is One in whom we can place our hope,

One who will not disappoint us. We sing the hymn written by Edward Mote:

*My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.*

Let us keep our focus above, on God and His promises, and place our hope in Him. The Psalmist wrote:

*Remember the word to Your servant,
Upon which You have cause me to hope.
(Psalm 119:49)*

And again:

*Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him
For the help of His countenance. (Psalm 42:5)*

Pray for the men and women in office, and work to make this nation better, but place your hope in the One who is above.

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Zimbabwe is one of the Southern African countries reeling under a severe drought. The Bulawayo City Council has introduced water rationing which lasts for 48 at a time. This shows how serious this drought is. During the month in review, we managed to distribute food to three congregations namely: Alicedale, Lushonkwe and Gcabayi. All the recipients of this food were very grateful indeed to our overseas brothers and sisters for continuing to help them with food during these hard times. A preacher at Alicedale congregation sent this message of appreciation:" I, Chitate on behalf of the Alicedale Church of Christ, we are very thankful for the mealie meal we received through brother Velaphi. Please continue to help us as most families here failed to harvest anything during the past season. This food is helping us feed our families who are facing starvation. Thank you very much and may!God bless you. John 21:15-23." In His service, Velaphi
