THANKFUL AND TRUSTING by Tim Dooley

Beginning in Numbers chapter 11 and reading through chapter 15 we notice how the Israelites complained, cried, wept, were ungrateful, murmured, were disbelieving and disobedient. The same could probably be said of the people of our society, especially in the past couple of weeks. There are many great lessons we can learn about the one true and living God and from the history of the children of Israel. Indeed, Paul's inspired pen was correct when he wrote, "For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope" (Romans 15:4).

Here are just a few things for us to consider as we approach this new week and the Thanksgiving holiday.

1) Be content. Hebrews 13:5 says, "Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, 'I will never leave you nor forsake you.'" Contentment doesn't necessarily mean satisfied. But carries with it the idea of thankfulness and a focus on how God has blessed us. So...

2) Count your blessings, look for the good in every situation, and be thankful. The Psalmist said, "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name" (Psalm 100:4). Colossians 3:15 instructs us to "let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful." And lastly...

3) Trust in the Lord. While in the history of God's people God recognizes both sins of ignorance and sins of presumption He still calls both of them sin. And there are consequences for both. Ignorance of the law was/is no excuse. And the only hope we have is to trust in Him and obey His commands (Psalm 37:3). Have a blessed week and be faithful!

MISSIONARY UPDATE: VELAPHI MELANGANI

Zimbabwe is one of the Southern African countries reeling under a severe drought. The Bulawayo City Council has introduced water rationing which lasts for 48 at a time. This shows how serious this drought is. During the month in review, we managed to distribute food to three congregations namely: Alicedale, Lushonkwe and Gcabayi. All the recipients of this food were very grateful indeed to our overseas brothers and sisters for continuing to help them with food during these hard times. A preacher at Alicedale congregation sent this message of appreciation:" I, Chitate on behalf of the Alicedale Church of Christ, we are very thankful for the mealie meal we received through brother Velaphi. Please continue to help us as most families here failed to harvest anything during the past season. This food is helping us feed our families who are facing starvation. Thank you very much and may!God bless you. John 21:15-23." In His service, Velaphi
