Congregational Meeting

Wayne Gretzky is one of, if not the greatest professional hockey players of all time. He was once asked why he was such a prolific scorer. His response was "I go where the puck is going, not where the puck has been." That statement certainly has relevant application to the Lord's church, doesn't it? This eldership here at Point Pleasant, must have a vision for the future, and not be looking back over our shoulder to where the "puck has been", thereby missing opportunities for growth and increased effectiveness as time presses forward.

"Where there is no vision, the people perish" (Prov. 29:18). The application of this verse rings true regarding Christians today. When the elders of the local church have no vision, no ideas, no goals for the future, the people will suffer and in some cases may perish spiritually. Though we have no guarantee of tomorrow (James 4:13), it is still appropriate to focus, and to set forth goals towards which the congregation can aspire as we labor together, side-by-side, in the vineyard. Joseph was despised by his brothers and misunderstood by his father, yet his dreams became a reality because he focused on God the entire time and never lost sight of his original vision (Gen. 37:1-11; 50:20)

You are important, and we need every family member to be in attendance on Monday evening for our Congregational Meeting. The elders, deacons, and Tim, will be presenting to you our vision, goals, and plan to get where we need to be in 2012. If we are going to labor side-by-side, then we need to make plans now to be present, to arrive early, so we can start on time, and be ready to receive the information. This is for you, it's for us as a church family, and it's for our children, their children and future generations! Our theme for 2012 is "It Is Time" (Eccl. 3:1). It is time to purchase the land around us. It is time to build a new building. "It Is Time" to be that "city on a hill" (Matt. 5:14-16), for all of the tri-state area! Our auditorium is full, classes are full, gathering areas are uncomfortably full, parking is full, we have no fellowship area...all are great problems to have, but the time is now to have the vision for our future, to have a plan and together, work that plan, so we can accomplish these goals together.

The Apostle Paul wrote of his plans for a visit to the church in Rome (Rom. 15:23-25) and was "single-minded" in his focus of forgetting past things and moving forward towards those things that were most meaningful in a spiritual sense (Phil. 3:13-14). John and I, urge this family (us included), to make plans, to set goals, to give liberally, cheerfully, and biblically, and to share in our vision for the future of the work, here at Point Pleasant. Then, support your shepherds as we lead you effectively towards meeting those goals. How do we define true success? Getting to Heaven! It's difficult for the congregation to move forward collectively unless we go where the puck is going and avoid the redundancy and futility of going where the puck has been. We love and appreciate this family. We earnestly desire your prayers, love, and support.
